“Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy?” This poignant question from Isaiah is especially provocative in a culture of rampant consumerism. The passage in Isaiah paints a vision of feasting, where hunger and thirst are satisfied abundantly by being in the presence of God. Fasting during Lent provides the opportunity to stand in solidarity with those for whom daily bread is a daily struggle, while also reminding us of that for which we truly hunger—Christ Jesus. As we celebrate Holy Communion this morning, we feast on the presence of God among us. Today’s preacher, Bishop Hutchinson, has been a key leader for the United Methodist Church along the Gulf Coast in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina.
Duke University Chapel

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS
† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today’s Docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant’s desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN
† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children’s bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

Offertory
Go Where I Send Thee!
Children, go where I send thee. How shall I send thee?
I'm gonna send thee one by one. One for the little bitty baby.
He was born! Born! Born in Bethlehem.
Two was for Paul and Silas.
Three was for the Hebrew children.
He was born....
Four came knockin' at the door. Somebody's knockin' at the door!
Oh sinner, why don't you answer? Somebody's knockin' at your door.
I shall send thee five by five. Five for the Gospel preachers.
I shall send thee six by six. Six was the six that couldn't get fixed.
Seven went up to heaven.
Eight was the eight that stood at the gate.
Nine was the nine that got left behind!
Ten by ten cause ten was the ten commandments.
He was born.....

*Doxology
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE
All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

ABOUT TODAY’S GUEST PREACHER

Today we welcome as our guest preacher Bishop William Hutchinson of the Louisiana area of the United Methodist Church. He is a native of New Mexico and spent most of his pastoral career serving churches there prior to his election as bishop in 2000.

Bishop Hutchinson attended the University of Oklahoma and Duke Divinity School, and he has honorary doctorates from McMurray University and Centenary College. He is active in numerous regional and national boards of the United Methodist Church, with a particular passion for helping people to discern their vocation, both in secular fields and in ordained ministry. To this end, he chaired several Exploration events (designed for youth considering ordained ministry) and he also created the Discerner’s Academy, which has proven a successful tool for vocational discernment in the Louisiana region. Bishop Hutchinson has a deep commitment to the spiritual formation of clergy and laity as a way to nurture the flourishing of the Church.

He is married to Kay Aitken Hutchinson and has two adult sons.
