Today is the first Sunday in the season of Lent, when we are invited to examine the roots of our Christian discipleship and identify Jesus’ journey to the cross. The early Sundays are a wilderness time, an opportunity to go deep into our hearts and the souls of our communities, to recognize the horror and depth of our estrangement from God, and to begin systematically to put things right.

It has been our tradition at the Chapel to chant the Great Litany during Lent, often on the first Sunday. This year the Chapel will chant the litany next week after the choir returns from spring break. The Chapel observes the tradition of removing Alleluias or flowers in the sanctuary during Lent: these will return with a burst of joy on Easter Day.
The congregation is asked to remain silent
during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 142
If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee
WER NUR DEN LIEBEN GOTT

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE
(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)
Almighty God, whose son fasted forty days in the wilderness, and was tempted as we are, yet was without sin; as we are formed by your word today, give us grace to discipline ourselves in obedience to your Spirit; and, as you know our weakness, so may we know your power to save. Amen.

RESPONSE

Sermon Response
  Eternally Content

Brittany Newsome
  (b. 1985)

Though an earthly want cause my heart to grieve,
Though temptation will arise
The greatest good I could e’er receive
Is the Savior’s sacrifice

My greatest thirst long ago was quenched
by the precious blood of Christ
And my greatest hunger, the bread of heaven already satisfied

O, Savior! Savior!
With this sacrament
My heart, my soul
Eternally content!

Call to Prayer
  Minister: The Lord be with you.
  People: And also with you.
  Minister: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People
  (The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

Offertory Anthem
  O lux beatissima

Howard Helvey
  (b. 1968)

O Light most blessed
Fill the inmost heart
Of all thy faithful.

Without your grace
There is nothing in us,
Nothing that is not harmful.
Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Thanksgiving and Communion

This morning we give thanks for Duke Forest and all those who work to cultivate and maintain it for the enjoyment of so many people. The ushers bring a branch to the altar.

In Durham we remember those who strive to tell truthful local histories. A representative brings forward a tobacco leaf.

*The Great Thanksgiving
(Musical Setting D, on page 23 of the hymnal)

*The Lord’s Prayer (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

Sharing of the Bread and Wine

All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

Music During Distribution

Hymn 616 (sung by all)

Come, Sinners, to the Gospel Feast

Communion Anthem

My Song is Love Unknown

My song is love unknown,
My Savior’s love to me;
Love to the loveless shown,
That they might lovely be.
O who am I, that for my sake
My Lord should take, frail flesh and die?
Sometimes they strew His way,
And His sweet praises sing;

Edwin T. Childs
(b. 1945)
Resounding all the day
Hosannas to their King:
Then “Crucify!” is all their breath,
And for His death they thirst and cry.

Why, what hath my Lord done?
What makes this rage and spite?
He made the lame to run,
He gave the blind their sight,
What injuries! Yet these are why
The Lord most high so cruelly dies.

Chapel Announcements

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need, but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

Stations of the Cross—The stations of the cross hanging in Duke Chapel this Lenten season were created by Haitian artist John Silvestri using recycled materials. The pieces are made from discarded steel oil drums by scrubbing off the paint, slitting them down the side, and hammering them flat. A chisel and wooden mallet are then used to cut out the design templates, and finally the pieces are textured with an ice pick or awl. These works of art allow us to see the suffering of our Lord through the lenses of our Haitian sisters and brothers.

Organ Recital Next Week—Next Sunday, March 20, at 5:00 p.m. University Organist Robert Parkins will present this season’s final recital in Duke Chapel: “French Keyboard Music of Four Centuries.” The program will feature the Brombaugh and Flentrop organs as well as the debut of our recently completed “Blue Devil” harpsichord. The recital is free and open to the public.

Toward a Moral Consensus Against Torture—The Duke Divinity School and First Presbyterian Church in Durham are hosting an inter-faith conference on religious witnesses against torture, “Toward a Moral Consensus Against Torture: A Gathering of Students, Clergy, People of Conscience, and People of Faith,” on Friday, March 25, from 3:30 p.m. through Saturday, March 26, at 3:30 p.m. at Duke Divinity School. The gathering is part of a national effort to develop a moral consensus against torture under any circumstances. The conference is sponsored by the Duke Human Rights Center, the North Carolina Council of Churches, and the National Religious Campaign Against Torture (NRCAT). It is open to the public. For more information or to register, visit www.divinity.duke.edu/moral-consensus-against-torture or contact Dr. Amy Laura Hall, alhall@div.duke.edu.
Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel.
