The Fourth Sunday in Lent is traditionally known as Refreshment Sunday (in Latin, Laetare). This Sunday marks the transition from the penitence of the early weeks of Lent to the taking up of the way of the cross in the later weeks. The letter to the church in Corinth emphasizes the newness of creation, “everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!” The parable of the prodigal son in Luke reveals the depth of God’s lavish grace, even in the face of human rebellion and disobedience.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 126
Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above
MIT FREUDEN ZART

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE
(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)
Merciful Lord, you know our struggle to serve you: when sin spoils our lives and overshadows our hearts, as we hear your word today, come to our aid and turn us back to you again; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Response

Call to Prayer
  Minister:  The Lord be with you.
  People:  And also with you.
  Minister:  Let us pray.

Prayers of the People
  (The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

Offertory Anthem
  Blessed Be the God and Father  Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God, through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation. Pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away, but the word of the Lord endureth forever. Evermore.
Amen.

—1 Peter 1:3-5, 15-17, 22-25

*Doxology
  Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
  Praise God, all creatures here below;
  Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
  Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Thanksgiving and Communion
  This morning we give thanks for the foreign language departments of the university. We celebrate their role in educating students in the languages, literature, and culture of various ethnicities and the ways they prepare students to participate in contemporary political, social, and cultural life across national boundaries. The ushers bring forward a foreign language dictionary to the altar.
In Durham we remember the elderly, those who live with and care for them, and especially those struggling in the face of illness, loneliness, and loss. A representative brings forward a photo album.

*The Great Thanksgiving
(Musical Setting D, on page 23 of the hymnal)

*The Lord’s Prayer (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

Sharing of the Bread and Wine
All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION AND HEALING - Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in the Memorial Chapel

CHORAL VESPERS - Thursday at 5:15 p.m. in the Chancel
TODAY’S OFFERING—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need, but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

TODAY’S GUEST CHOIR—The Choir of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Columbia, South Carolina sings for more than 200 liturgical events annually, as well as concerts, tours and recordings. In recent years they have sung in residence at Canterbury Cathedral; Gloucester Cathedral; the American Cathedral in Paris; St. Thomas Church, New York; and Washington National Cathedral. The choristers singing this morning represent the Choir of Men and Boys, and the Choir of Men and Girls. Each choir is auditioned and limited to 20 choristers, who sing with a group of professional men.

SWIMMING AGAINST THE TIDE—On Sunday, March 21, at 7:00 p.m., Dr. Vernon Tyson, the Methodist pastor featured in the documentary Blood Done Sign My Name will reflect upon engaging ministry, race, and politics as a North Carolina Methodist pastor. The title of his talk will be “Fifty Years of Swimming Against the Tide.” He will be joined by his son, Dr. Timothy Tyson, Visiting Professor of American Christianity and Southern Culture at Duke, who wrote Blood Done Sign My Name, on which the documentary is based, which tells a story of racial violence in Oxford, NC, in 1970. This event will be held in Room 0016 Westbrook.

ORGAN RECITAL—Next Sunday, March 21, is the 325th birthday of Johann Sebastian Bach. As a tribute to the greatest composer of music for organ, University Organist Robert Parkins will present a program of works by Bach in the final recital of this season’s series, including an early chorale fantasy discovered just two years ago. The recital will be at 5:00 p.m. in the Chapel, and admission is free.

COFFEE AND CHRIST—The Chapel is offering a new Sunday School class for undergraduates at 9:45 a.m. on Sunday mornings in Room 110 of the Gray Building. The class is reflecting on Jesus’ parables.

VESPER PALM SUNDAY CONCERT—The Duke Vespers Ensemble will present “Ora Pro Nobis: Music for the Anunciation and Holy Week by Spanish and Colonial Masters” on Sunday, March 28 at 2:00 p.m. in the Chapel. This hour-long concert will feature works by Victoria, Morales, Casals, Busto, Ginastera, and other composers from Spain and Latin America. Admission is free.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS—The stations of the cross hanging in Duke Chapel this Lenten season were created by Haitian artist John Silvestri using recycled materials. The pieces are made from discarded steel oil drums by scrubbing off the paint, slitting them down the side, and hammering them flat. A chisel and wooden mallet are then used to cut out the design templates, and finally the pieces are textured with an ice pick or awl. These works of art allow us to see the suffering of Jesus through the lenses of our Haitian sisters and brothers.
Adult Forum—On March 21, The Rev. Dr. Hugh Knapp will speak on the topic “Jonathan Edwards and Love for all Being.” Dr. Knapp is a retired pastor and a retired university professor and long-time worshipper in the Chapel community. The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building at 9:45 a.m.

Responding to Haiti: Medical Supplies Collection—The World Missions Committee is collecting medical supplies for Haiti on March 14 and 21. Requested donations include: powdered infant formula with iron; vitamins with iron for children and adults; ibuprofen for adults; children’s liquid acetaminophen; acetaminophen tablets for adults; antibiotic creams; children’s liquid benadryl/benadryl tablets for adults; and Tums/Rolaids/Tagamet/Zantac/Prilosec/Pepcid. Generics for all donations are welcome. Please drop off your donations on the back pews of the Chapel on these Sundays.

Lenten Meal—The Congregation invites you to attend a simple Lenten meal of homemade soup, bread, cheese and fruit today after worship in the Chapel basement lounge. The meal is free of charge, but donations to this year’s CROP Walk will be accepted. Afterward you are invited to remain for the Congregation Council’s presentation of its new strategic plan.

Durham CROP Walk—Save the date for the annual Durham CROP Walk, Sunday, March 21, at 2:00 p.m. The Walk is a ministry of Church World Service. Join the walk in solidarity with the world’s hungry. Walkers and financial sponsors are needed. To join our team or to contribute online, go to www.DurhamCropwalk.org or contact the Rev. Puckett at bruce.puckett@duke.edu or at 684-3917. Information for donors and CROP Walkers is available by the front steps of the Chapel after worship today.

Part-Time Director of Christian Education—The Congregation is seeking a part-time Director of Christian Education to develop and implement programs for discipleship and spiritual formation for children fifth grade and younger and also for adults. A seminary degree is required. Please send your resume including two references to: office@congregation.chapel.duke.edu.
