Fourth Sunday in Easter

April 25, 2010

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

Icon of Christ the Good Shepherd.

Each year on the fourth Sunday of Easter we read Psalm 23 and a gospel passage that speaks of Jesus as the good shepherd. This Sunday is therefore often known as “Good Shepherd Sunday.” Sheep are routinely considered to be silly, stubborn animals, and the shepherd comes to symbolize the loving care and attentiveness towards what would otherwise be unlovable. In both the Old and New Testaments, God is frequently identified as a devoted shepherd to his people. Today, marking the conclusion of the academic year, we will be saying goodbye to seniors, including those who have been members of the Chapel Choir, and commissioning seven Duke undergraduates for PathWays.

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep:
reveal your word to us, teach us to hear your voice,
and draw us to follow your command,
that all your people may be gathered into one flock,
to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

RESPONSE

ANTHEM

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need

American Folk hymn
arr. Mack Wilberg
(b. 1955)

My shepherd will supply my need; Jehovah is his name. In pastures fresh he makes me feed, beside the living stream. He brings my wandering spirit back, when I forsake his ways, and leads me for his mercy's sake, in paths of truth and grace. When I walk through the shades of death, thy presence is my stay. One word of thy supporting breath drives all my fears away. Thy hand, in sight of all my foes, doth still my table spread. My cup with blessings overflows, thine oil anoints my head. The sure provisions of my God attend me all my days. O may thy house be mine abode and all my work be praise! There would I find a settled rest while others go and come, no more a stranger, nor a guest; but like a child at home.

—Psalm 23

COMMISSIONING OF PATHWAYS SUMMER INTERNS

The Rev. Daniel: The role of the PathWays Interns is to spend the summer exploring vocation through communal life in the West End neighborhood and employment in nonprofit organizations in Durham. Is this your understanding of the role to which you have been called?

Interns: It is.

The Rev. Daniel: The Lord bless you with courage, faith, and mutual forbearance as you seek God and seek to make God known.

People: Amen.

The Rev. Daniel: Loving God, bless all those who inspire us in their commitment to the Durham community. Give us grace to meet you in the face of friend and stranger. Teach us how to walk in your footsteps, day by day.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister:

The Lord be with you.

People:

And also with you.

Minister:

Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

O Sacred Breath, O Blazing Love

Stephen Paulus
(b. 1949)

Fiery Spirit, fount of courage, life within life. Holy are you, transmuting the perfect into the real. Holy are you, healing the stricken. Holy are you, cleansing the wounds. O sacred breath, O blazing love, O savor in the breast and balm, flooding the heart with the fragrance of good. O limpid mirror of God, who leads wanderers home; guard those imprisoned, free those in fetters, save those who know bliss! O current of power permeating all in the heights upon the earth and in all deeps; you bind and gather all people together. Out of you clouds come streaming, winds take wing from you, dashing rain against stone; waters well forth in streams, washing the evergreen globe. You are ever teaching the learned, made joyful by the breath of wisdom. Praise then be yours! You are the song of praise!

—Hildegard von Bingen
(translation by Barbara Newman)

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for the foreign language departments of the university. We celebrate their role in educating students in the languages, literature, and culture of various ethnicities and the ways they prepare students to participate in contemporary political, social, and cultural life across national boundaries. The ushers bring forward a foreign language dictionary to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who suffer from depression, loneliness, or quiet desperation. A representative brings forward a personal journal.

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

THIS WEEK AT DUKE CHAPEL

MORNING PRAYER - Monday-Wednesday at 9:00 a.m. in the Memorial Chapel

COMMUNION AND HEALING - Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in the Memorial Chapel

This is the final Tuesday service of the semester.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for today's worship service are given in memory of Senator Terry Sanford, the former governor of North Carolina and former president of Duke University, by the Terry Sanford Chapel Flowers Fund.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. Duke's desire that the building exert a profound influence on the lives of the young women and men who attend the university.

CHAPEL CHOIR—Today is the last Sunday for the Chapel Choir until the fall semester. We offer particular thanks to those choir members who are singing with the choir for the last time today. On the final Sunday of the academic year, the choir does not encircle the congregation for "God Be In My Head," but it gathers in the narthex and encircles all the singers who are graduating and so are singing with the choir for the last time. If you are a student who is interested in joining the Chapel Choir next semester, please call 684-3898.

DEANS' DIALOGUE—All are invited to the final Deans' Dialogue on the topic of "Leadership in Difficult Times." Dean Sam Wells will talk with Pratt School of Engineering Dean Tom Katsouleas on Tuesday, April 27, at 12:15 p.m. in Schiciano Auditorium Side A, in the Pratt School of Engineering. Lunch refreshments will be served.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

ADULT FORUM—On May 2, the Rev. Dr. Stephen Chapman, Associate Professor of Old Testament, will speak on "Animals in the Bible." The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building at 9:45 a.m. This is the last Adult Forum until the fall semester.

KEEPING FAITH IN HAITI—Tonight at 7:00 p.m., the Congregation at Duke Chapel is sponsoring a conversation with Pastor Leon Dorleans, a pastor for several Christian community churches in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Pastor Leon will speak on the topic "After the Earthquake: Keeping Faith in Haiti" in Room 0012 Westbrook. Pastor Leon's visit comes as part of an ongoing relationship among the Congregation, Duke Chapel, Family Health Ministries, Pastor Leon, and his churches.

DINNER AT URBAN MINISTRIES—The Congregation is scheduled to serve dinner at Urban Ministries of Durham on Wednesday, April 28, and Sunday, May 9. If you would like to donate a lasagna, help serve the meal, or both, please contact Ned Arnett at edward.arnett@duke.edu or 489-4133.

PATHWAYS SUMMER INTERNS

The PathWays Summer Internship is designed for Duke undergraduates interested in exploring their calling as Christians while living in community in the PathWays house and through employment in Durham nonprofit, government, faith-based, and ministry settings. The internship runs 8 weeks (June-July) and includes daily morning prayer, weekly discernment dinners, theological writing and reflection, service opportunities, and a mid-summer retreat.

Daniel Barron, PathWays Scholar, Trinity 2012

Daniel is from Wyomissing, PA, majoring in Asian and Middle Eastern Studies and International Comparative Studies. He is currently studying abroad in Oman. He serves in the college ministry at the Chapel Hill Bible Church and is a member of Brownstone and the Outing Club. Daniel will intern at Reality Ministries, a community based, inter-church youth ministry organization.

Liana Lau, PathWays Scholar, Trinity 2012

Liana is from New York City. She is on the pre-med track majoring in psychology with a French minor and a Certificate in Sexualities. She wants to be a pediatric psychiatrist. A city girl at heart, Liana loves the way God reveals himself through nature. She also enjoys reading and baking, especially if she can do both at the same time. Liana will serve the special needs population at Reality Ministries.

Alice Mao, PathWays Scholar, Trinity 2011

Alice was born in Hunan, China. She is majoring in biology and has many passions including art, education, and community service. Last summer through Duke Engage, she taught underprivileged migrant children in the outskirts of Beijing and served on a medical missions team in Honduras. She is exploring health care, and will serve at Partners in Caring (PIC). PIC is a grant-funded component of the DUMC Pastoral Service Department and the DUMC Division of Infectious Diseases.

Hillary Martinez, Trinity 2013

Hillary Martinez is from Irvine, CA. She loves reading, enjoying nature, spending time with her nieces and nephews, and traveling. She studied abroad in French-speaking Belgium during her senior year of high school, which sparked her interest in the French language. She plans to major in English and earn a secondary education teaching license in English. Hillary will be working with the Child Evangelism Fellowship and Youth Life Foundation to share Christ and promote literacy through tutoring elementary and middle school students in Durham.

Hannah Peckham, Trinity 2012

Hannah is from Arizona. She is double majoring in history and religion. Hannah chose to participate in the PathWays Summer Internship experience via her participation in the Service Opportunities in Leadership Program (SOL) sponsored through the Sanford School of Public Policy, Hart Leadership Program. Hannah's SOL project includes researching Durham churches and their involvement in local politics.

Alex Sheen, PathWays Scholar, Trinity 2011

Alex is from Kilbeer, IL, and is majoring in biology. He is a PathWays Scholar and an active member of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship at Duke where he leads a freshmen small group and serves as one of the musical worship leaders. Alex hungers to experience God's call in the health care arena. He will intern at the Division of Community Health, Duke University Medical Center.

Troy Shelton, PathWays Scholar, Trinity 2011

Troy Shelton is from Lexington, NC, and is a history major and classics minor. Troy participates in the vocational discernment group led by Orthodox Christian Campus Chaplain John Stonestreet. He is president of Duke's Orthodox Christian Fellowship. Troy is pursuing a career in law, and will intern at the Durham County Courthouse under the supervision of the district court administrator.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-684-2572

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.

† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.

† Activity Bags (for children 5 and under) and Liturgy Boxes (ages 5-8) are available at the rear of the Chapel to help children engage in worship. Please return after the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu
