On Saturday 18 people (nine of them Congregation members) will be leaving on a mission trip to Haiti to work with Family Health Ministries at its clinic in Blanchard. We will commission members of the team this morning. This morning we also launch a fundraising effort co-sponsored by the Chapel and the Congregation to rebuild the second floor of Family Health Ministries' hospital in Leogane, Haiti. The initiative is in honor of the outgoing Pastor to the Congregation at Duke Chapel, the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the employees of Duke Financial Services. We celebrate the many ways they manage the complex financial life of the university. The ushers bring an outline of Duke's General Accounting Procedures (GAP) to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those who encounter the criminal justice system as attorneys, judges, and jury members and those who face trial. The ushers bring forward a copy of the North Carolina legal code.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical setting A, found on page 17 in the hymnal.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Do Not I Love Thee, O My Lord?

Milburn Price
(b. 1938)

Do not I love thee, O my Lord?
Behold my heart, and see;
And turn each cursed idol out
That dares to rival thee.

Do not I love thee from my soul?
Then let me nothing love;
Dead be my heart to every joy,
When Jesus cannot move.

Thou knowest I love thee, dearest Lord,
But O! I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love thee more.

WELCOMING CHRISTY LOHR

This week we have welcomed Dr. Christy Lohr as our new Associate Dean for Religious Life. Christy has a Ph.D. from (jointly) Hartford Seminary, Connecticut, and the University of Exeter, England, an M.A. in Religion and Literature from the University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC, and a B.A. in English/Philosophy and Religions from Appalachian State University, Boone, NC. She has previously worked for the World Council of Churches and the Temple of Understanding, an interfaith organization in New York. Christy is a Lutheran lay person, and spent much of her early life in North Carolina.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK -

WHY DO WE READ THE GOSPEL FROM THE CENTER AISLE?

This was the practice of the Western Church in ancient times, from at least the fourth century onward. The gospel has a special status because in it are recorded the very words of Jesus himself. Placing its reading at the center of our worship reflects this authority—it makes it clear the gospel stands at the very center of the Chapel's faith and life. Like the opening procession and closing recession, the gospel procession displays the pilgrim character of the church. We invite the congregation to turn to face the gospel, as an embodiment of the repentance the gospel asks of us. Duke Chapel has an interdenominational foundation: this is one way we draw on all the riches of the Church's liturgical heritage to enhance our encounter with the living God.

WHY DO WE PROCESS INTO THE SANCTUARY?

Throughout the Bible there is a tension between God's people as a settled people, enjoying land, king, and temple and God's people as a pilgrim nation, experiencing exodus, wilderness, and exile. Jesus comes to a people who are in internal exile under the Romans; he encourages them to put aside everything and to follow him. Yet, we often forget we are a pilgrim people. And so in every act of worship we have a procession, in order to embody what it means to live the life of faith as a journey. The two most significant forms of companionship are to share a meal and to share a journey. Worship begins with one and ends with the other. Just as the Road to Emmaus was, in Luke, the first encounter with the risen Christ, so today breaking bread together helps us identify the God we meet on the journey.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually inter-denominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
