This morning’s lesson from Romans has Paul wrestling honestly with the weight of his sin, and how often he fails to live the life worthy of Christ. He states, “I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do...who will rescue me from this body of death?” The gospel lesson from Matthew provides words of comfort to those similarly weighed down by life’s struggles, as Jesus invites, “Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.”
We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at...

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

Thanksgiving and Communion
This morning we give thanks for Duke Press. We celebrate its dedication to publishing scholarly books which increase human knowledge and understanding. The ushers bring to the altar a book of Chapel sermons published by the Press.

In Durham, we lift up those who contribute joy to our community culture through their artistic and creative expressions. The ushers bring forward a paintbrush.

*The Great Thanksgiving

*The Lord’s Prayer (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

Sharing of the Bread and Wine
All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.
