The scripture lessons this week both focus on the shape of the Christian life. In his letter to the Colossians, Paul encourages the followers there to “lead lives worthy of the Lord,” and to commit their lives to sanctification and a life of fruitful obedience. Luke tells the parable of the Good Samaritan. Because Samaritan has become a well-known term to refer to do-gooders, some of the original shock of the message is lost. In Jesus’ time, Samaritans were a despised ethnic minority. Yet in this parable the Samaritan is held up as an example of one who understands what it means to be a neighbor.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

TERRA BEATA

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE
(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)
Generous God, you give us gifts and make them grow:
though our faith is as small as mustard seed, inspire us by your word and make our faith grow to your glory and the flourishing of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION
This morning we give thanks for the summer camps and other summer programs of the University. We celebrate how they encourage and train young people in athletic and intellectual pursuits. The ushers bring a summer camp tee-shirt to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who care for others at the end of life. The ushers bring forward a photo of a caregiver by the bedside of a loved one.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING
(Musical setting B, found on page 18 in the hymnal.)

THE LORD’S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE
All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

Haiti Clinic Update
The joint fundraising project of The Congregation at Duke Chapel and Duke University Chapel to rebuild the second floor of Family Health Ministries’ Leogane clinic, in honor of the Congregation’s departing pastor the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark, has raised $46,330 from 82 donors/households since its launch on June 6. Please help us reach our $80,000 goal by August 15. Please make checks payable to Duke University Chapel with “Haiti Clinic” in memo line or give on line using a credit card at www.gifts.duke.edu/chapel with “Haiti Clinic” under “Designation Comments,” and check the box next to “Chapel Development Fund.”
Chapel Announcements

Today’s Flowers—The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need, but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

Summer Choir—Duke Chapel welcomes singers to its Summer Choir, which assists in leading worship from June to August 1. The choir is under the direction of Dr. Allan Friedman. Regular rehearsals are on Sundays at 9:15 a.m. Call 684-3898 for details.

Duke University Chapel

We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
