The letter to the Ephesians wakes followers of Jesus out of their complacency and conformity to the world. In today’s scripture lesson, believers are encouraged to live distinctive lives of faith and wisdom, in contrast to the world around them. The primary way to do this is identified as worship. In the gospel lesson from John, the lectionary passage lingers on Jesus as the bread of life, and his eucharistic emphasis that his body and blood are the food for eternal life.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Thanksgiving and Communion
This morning we lift up Duke parents, especially parents of incoming first-year students, as they face this transition in the life of their child. The ushers bring a high school graduation photo to the altar.

We lift up the Durham Police Department and its mission to partner with citizens in safeguarding the community, especially through the efforts of Partners Against Crime in each district. The ushers bring forward a map of the five police districts in the city of Durham.

*The Great Thanksgiving
(Musical Setting B, on page 18 of the hymnal. The leader will sing each phrase of the responses, and the congregation repeats.)

*The Lord’s Prayer (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

Sharing of the Bread and Wine
All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM
Panis angelicus
César Franck
(1822-1890)

Panis angelicus fit panis hominum.
Dat panis coelicus figuris terminum.
O res mirabilis! Manducat Dominum
Pauper, servus et humilis.

Te trina Deitas, unaque, poscimus,
Sic nos tu visita sicut te colimus;
Per tuas semitas duc nos quo tendimus,
Ad lucem quam inhabitas. Amen.

The bread of the angels becomes the bread of man;
This bread of heaven ends all prefigurations:
O wondrous thing!
A poor and humble servant consumes the Lord.

Of you, threefold and one God, we ask:
Come to visit us as we worship you;
lead us on your paths to where we want to go:
to the light in which you dwell. Amen.

ABOUT TODAY’S GUEST PREACHER

This morning we welcome the Rev. Dr. L. Roger Owens as our guest preacher. The Rev. Owens is the co-pastor, with his wife, the Rev. Ginger Thomas, of Duke Memorial United Methodist Church, Durham, NC. They are the parents of two sons, Simeon, who is five, and Silas, who is four. Roger has a M.Div. from Duke Divinity School. He completed his Ph.D. at Duke in theological ethics in 2006. He is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church. Before coming to Duke Memorial last year, Roger and Ginger were the co-pastors of Trinity United Methodist Church, just outside of Louisburg, NC. Roger’s work has appeared in The Christian Century, as well as a number of other theological journals. He has two books coming out in the fall: The Shape of Participation: a Theology of Church Practices, and Wendell Berry and Religion: Heaven’s Earthly Life, edited with Joel J. Shuman.

Featuring Chapel Housekeeper Oscar Dantzler

In early 2009 two filmmakers chose Duke Chapel’s beloved housekeeper Oscar Dantzler along with six other housekeepers from other universities to feature in their documentary, The Philosopher Kings. In June, the movie debuted at the Silver Docs film festival in Maryland, and now is being screened at the campuses where the featured custodians work and other film festivals. Director Patrick Shen and co-producer Greg Bennis visited Duke several times, following Oscar during his workday on campus, and even accompanied him on a fishing trip with him after work.

In search of wisdom found in unlikely places, The Philosopher Kings takes us on a journey through the halls of the most prestigious colleges and universities in America to learn from the staff members who see it all and have been through it all: the custodians. This thought-provoking, feature-length documentary interweaves the untold stories of triumph and tragedy from the members of society who are often disregarded and ignored, and seeks out the kind of wisdom that gets you through the day and the lessons one learns from surviving hard times, lost loves, and shattered dreams. From the producers of the multiple-award winning Flight from Death, The Philosopher Kings gives us the opportunity to learn from eight incredible individuals whom we would never have otherwise taken a moment out of our day to acknowledge.
