Service of Worship

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Founders' Sunday

September 25, 2011

Each year near the first Sunday in October, we give thanks to God for the vision and founders of Duke University. Dean Wells will lead a litany of commemoration after the sermon. We are joined by Jenny Koortbojian, who is the great-great-granddaughter of Washington Duke. Today's scripture passages concern questions of authority. In Exodus, the Israelites challenge Moses' authority over them because their needs are not being met in the wilderness under his leadership. In Matthew's gospel, the chief priests question Jesus' authority as he teaches in the temple. The lesson from Philippians orients disciples to a new way of being—that they take on the mind of Christ. In this way of being, Paul argues that every knee will bend and every tongue confess the authority of Jesus as Lord.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

OFFERTORY

Like as the Hart

Herbert Howells
(1892-1983)

Like as the hart desireth the waterbrooks,
So longeth my soul after thee, O God.
My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God.
When shall I come to appear before the presence of God?
My tears have been my meat day and night,
While they daily say unto me: Where is now thy God?

—Psalm 42:1-3

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for the Department of Sociology. We celebrate its goal to increase understanding of social change and social differences, to foster tolerance, and to allow for individual and collective responses that support equity and human development. The ushers bring a fact sheet from the American Sociological Association to the altar.

In Durham, we remember parish nurses and home healthcare providers who visit patients in their homes, and we give thanks for the support they offer families, congregations, and physicians. The ushers bring forward an arm brace.
