Chapel Dean Sam Wells will lead the congregation through the Litany of Commemoration. The Chapel service will continue as usual at 11:00 a.m. The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

WELCOMING REMARKS President Richard H. Brodhead

WORDS OF REMEMBRANCE James Semans

A LITANY OF COMMEMORATION

Almighty and eternal God, in whom our mothers and fathers have trusted, we their children, at this time of remembrance, offer unto thee our Prayers of Thanksgiving:

Hear us, we beseech thee, O Lord.

For the members of the Duke family—father, daughter, sons and their spouses, grandchildren, and all others in continuing generations until this very day — who, with concern and compassion, devotion and dedication, and by their generosity, built on a solid foundation, continued a worthy school, and provided for education and service beyond even their dreams and expectations:

We give thee thanks and praise.

For the pioneering and persevering men and women connected with this University—Methodists and Quakers, farmers and merchants, teachers and administrators—who, in days gone by, believed in education and made their beliefs prevail:

We give thee thanks and praise.

For the embodiment of their dreams—from private school to academy to college to great university and founded in hope, continued with sacrifice, growing in outreach, and serving with commitment:

We give thee thanks and praise.
For faculty and staff whose vision was bolstered by their courage, whose patience was tested and found true, and whose idealism was implanted in the hearts and minds of others:
We give thee thanks and praise.

For the ongoing presence of noble ideas—the blessing of eruditio et religio; the freedom for responsible academic research and teaching; the ongoing respect for both the body and the spirit; the pursuit of knowledge in the sciences and the humanities; and the realization that the old order changes and new times bring new opportunities:
We give thee thanks and praise.

For the future of Duke University, established for thy glory and for the enlightenment of the human mind and spirit; for consecration to learning by the young; for the best use of the wisdom of those in later years; for the commitment to growth and enhancement of all persons; for a sense of humor, a spirit of cooperation, and a desire for understanding among all within our community and the world:
We give thee thanks and praise.

And to thee, O God, we shall ascribe, as is most due, all praise and glory, world without end. Amen.

Treasures in Heaven
Joseph W. Clokey (1890-1960)

—Matthew 6:19-21

Sermon—Learning to Dream Again
RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

Come, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to whom we as thy children cry; the good desired and wanted most out of thy richest grace supply; the sacred discipline be given, to train and bring, to train and bring, to train and bring us up for heaven. and store with thoughts, and store with thoughts divinely true. thine, wholly thine, thine, wholly thine, to die and live. till all our earth, till all our earth is filled with God.
