

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Founders' Sunday

October 4, 2009

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

The aims of Duke University are to assert a faith in the eternal union of knowledge and religion set forth in the teachings and character of Jesus Christ, the Son of God; to advance learning in all lines of truth; to defend scholarship against all false notions and ideals; to develop a Christian love of freedom and truth; to promote a sincere spirit of tolerance; to discourage all partisan and sectarian strife; and to render the largest permanent service to the individual, the state, the nation, and the church. Unto these ends shall the affairs of this University always be administered.

Each year near the first Sunday in October, we give thanks to God for the vision and founders of Duke University. This year, Dean Wells will lead a litany of commemoration after the sermon. Today is also World Communion Sunday, and as we celebrate holy communion, we remember our Christian brothers and sisters throughout the globe who share in this holy meal.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

GATHERING

PRELUDE

Almighty and Everlasting God	Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)
For the Beauty of the Earth	Philip Stopford (b. 1977)
Down in the Valley to Pray	Traditional American arr. Michael Pettersen
A Song of Jesus	Kingsfold, harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams arr. David H. Williams

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 650

Give Me the Faith Which Can Remove CAREY'S (SURREY)

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Gracious God, you call us to fullness of life:
as we hear your word proclaimed,
deliver us from unbelief
and banish our anxieties with the liberating love of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST LESSON—Hebrews 1:1-4, 2:5-12 (NT pages 204-05 in the pew Bible)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

*GRADUAL HYMN (see insert, stanzas 1-2)

Come Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
(All turn to face the Gospel Procession.)

ST. CATHERINE

*GOSPEL LESSON—Mark 10:2-16 (NT page 43)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

FOUNDERS' LITANY (please see opposite side of insert and read responsively)

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

O Thou Sweetest Source of Gladness

Charles Wood
(1866-1926)

O Thou sweetest Source of gladness, light's all lovely fountain head,
Who, alike in joy and sadness, leavest none unvisited;
Breath of Godhead, highest King, who upholding everything.
Wilt uphold, with love undying—Hear, O hear me humbly crying.

From thy throne, as April shower, thou descendest, heavenly One,
Freighted with thy sevenfold dower, from the Father, and the Son:
Bring me noble Guest divine, God's own blessings they are thine,
Freely deal at thy good pleasure, fill me in abundant measure.

Save, uphold, and go before me, fainting, be my staff and rod:
Dying, to new life restore me; buried, be my grave, O God.
From the dust when I arise, come, exalt me to the skies,
Where thou within realms supernal, feed thy saints with joys eternal.
Amen.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Sanford School of Public Policy. We celebrate its dedication to creating public policy leaders for a changing world, and helping the University use knowledge in the service of society. A Sanford representative brings a photo of the school to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who contribute financially to agencies and organizations that serve local communities and neighborhoods. The ushers bring forward a note of thanks to a donor from a local agency.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING
(Musical Setting A, on page 17 of the hymnal)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

The Light of the World

Andrew Carter
(b. 1939)

Behold, I stand at the door and knock:
If any man hear my voice, and open the door,
I will come in to him, I will come in to him,
and sup with him, and he with me.
Jesus said, I am the light of the world:
He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness,
But shall have the light of life.
Jesus said, I am the good shepherd: that giveth his life for the sheep.
Jesus said, I am the way, the truth, and the life.
Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life.
Behold, I stand and the door and knock:
I will come to you, I will come to you, I will come to you.
Behold, I stand at the door and knock.

RESPONSIVE LITANY FOR FOUNDERS' SUNDAY

Duke Family Representative—For Brantley York, Braxton Craven, and those who laid the foundations for Trinity College.

Congregation—Hallowed be thy name.

Dean Wells—Loving Father, your Son was born in obscurity in Bethlehem; encourage all who serve fragile institutions amid small beginnings.

President Brodhead—For John Franklin Crowell, Washington Duke, Julian S. Carr, and those who brought the college to Durham

Congregation—Hallowed be thy name.

Dean Wells—Pilgrim God, your Son had no place to lay his head; bless our city and make this university a blessing to all who live here.

Duke Family Representative—For Benjamin N. Duke, John S. Bassett, and those who made Trinity College the pride of the South

Congregation—Hallowed be thy name.

Dean Wells—Nurturing God, your Son grew in stature and favor in Nazareth; make this region a place of which all its people may be proud.

President Brodhead—For James B. Duke, William Preston Few, and those who transformed the college into Duke University

Congregation—Hallowed be thy name.

Dean Wells—Awesome God, in Christ you make all things new; open our lives to the transformation of your grace, and infuse our ambition with the fruits of your Spirit.

Duke Family Representative—For Julian Abele, Ellen Shipman, and all who made the campus a place of beauty and inspiration

Congregation—Hallowed be thy name.

Dean Wells—Creator God, whom no building can contain, and no garden fully express; be our solid foundation and the texture of our growth.

President Brodhead—For the Duke family and all who have served the university as benefactors, trustees, presidents, and guiding stars

Congregation—Hallowed be thy name.

Dean Wells—Faithful God, your love never lets us go; make us faithful friends, constant servants, and cherishing guardians of your coming kingdom.

Duke Family Representative—For all who have upheld and exceeded the best traditions of the university, for those who have embodied the union of eruditio and religio, and for those who have made the good of this place their strength and their song

Congregation—Hallowed be thy name.

Dean Wells—Living God, you inscribe the hearts of all who love you with the abundance of your mercy; make our hearts sing with your praises as we strive to embody what your love can do. Amen.

WORSHIP AND HINI

Out of concern for the health of all who come through the doors of Duke Chapel we have taken to heart your questions about worship and the HINI virus and sought appropriate medical advice. We encourage you to observe the best health practices by washing your hands frequently and, when sick, by worshipping with us at home via radio or the internet. We also ask you to be sensitive during worship to those whose tender or advanced age or general health condition may make them cautious about human contact. Otherwise, we continue to worship according to our usual pattern and to pray for the health and well-being of all in our community who may be affected by this virus.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God by the Chapel Gotham Fund.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. Duke's desire that the building exert a profound influence on the lives of the young women and men who attend the university.

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Copies of today's sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just inside the front doors of the Chapel. A downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons each week are available on our website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

NEED A BREAK FROM SPRING BREAK?—PathWays is leading mission trips to Belize and Costa Rica, as well as a retreat to Christ in the Desert Monastery during spring break 2010. The deadline for mission trip applications to be submitted to the PathWays office is October 19 at 12:00 p.m. Interested students can visit www.chapel.duke.edu/pathways or email adam.hollowell@duke.edu for more information.

DEANS' DIALOGUE—The first Deans' Dialogue of the semester will take place on Wednesday, October 28, from 12:15-1:15 p.m. at the Duke South Amphitheater in the Duke South Hospital. Lunch will be served. The conversation will be between Dean Sam Wells and Dean of the Medical School, Dr. Nancy Andrews. The topic this year is "Leadership in Difficult Times." If you have questions, please contact Mandie Sellars at mandie.sellars@duke.edu.

HIDDEN VOICES—The Hidden Voices "Speaking without Tongues" exhibit begins in Duke Chapel today and will run through mid-November. The exhibit highlights stories from survivors of family and domestic abuse. A reception for the exhibit will be held at Duke Chapel Tuesday, October 20 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. A special stage performance of "Speaking without Tongues" will be held in Reynolds Theatre on the evening of Tuesday, October 27, at 7:00 p.m. If you have questions, please contact Gaston Warner at g.warner@duke.edu.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES—Adult Forum and the Lectionary Discussion Group meet each Sunday (except for second Sundays) at 9:45 a.m. Next week's Adult Forum speaker is Dr. J. Kameron Carter, Professor of Theology and Black Church Studies at the Divinity School, who will speak on Christian Identity in an Age of Obama. He will speak in Room 0012 Westbrook. The lectionary discussion group meets in Room 110 Gray Building.

CONGREGATION ANNIVERSARY BREAKFAST—On Sunday, October 11, at 9:00 a.m., the Congregation will celebrate its 24th anniversary at a breakfast held in the Episcopal Student Center, 505 Alexander Ave., Durham. All ages will share in a Godly Play lesson. Reservations are not required, and all are welcome.

HABITAT HOUSE—The Congregation at Duke Chapel is partnering with Duke students this fall to build a Habitat for Humanity house at 918 Morehead Ave. The groundbreaking will take place on October 10, and all are invited to participate. Work will continue each Saturday until the house is completed. For more information, or to volunteer for a Saturday morning or afternoon shift, please visit <http://www2.mysignup.com/dukehabitat> or contact John Boswell at john.boswell@sas.com. No experience is required.

MEALS ON WHEELS SANTA PROJECT—The Local Missions and Outreach Committee is collecting donations for the Meals on Wheels Santa Project in which volunteers deliver gifts in December that provide warmth and comfort to older adults in need. Items such as fleece throws, warm socks, slippers, and bath gifts sets are appreciated. Please leave your wrapped gift on the back pew of Duke Chapel on October 11 or 18.

MIKE ARNESON BENEFIT CONCERT—On Saturday, November 7, at 8:00 p.m., the Duke Chapel Choir will perform a benefit concert for Mike Arneson to help with ongoing medical expenses after his bicycle accident in June. Tickets will cost $25 per person and will be available for purchase after worship today near the front steps of the Chapel. The hour-long performance, conducted by Dr. Rodney Wynkoop, will take place in Duke Chapel and will include many Chapel Choir favorites. For more information, contact Karen Witzleben at 919-493-9178 or kwitz@earthlink.net.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY—Godly Play meets each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. Children entering third grade or younger will meet in the crypt. Those in the fourth and fifth grades will be meeting in a new location, which is the York Reading Room on the second floor of Duke Divinity School. For more information, please contact Chamberlyn Marks at chamberlyn.marks@duke.edu.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually inter-denominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-684-2572

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.

† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.

† Activity Bags (for children 5 and under) and Liturgy Boxes (ages 5-8) are available at the rear of the Chapel to help children engage in worship. Please return after the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu
