"The Death of Moses," by Marc Chagall, 1956.

Today's lesson from Deuteronomy tells how Moses, who led the Israelites for forty years in the wilderness, dies before entering the promised land. In his letter to the people of Thessalonica, Paul encourages them to persevere in the face of suffering, knowing that God has entrusted them to share the gospel, and that their mission is grounded in him. In the gospel lesson from Matthew, Jesus emphasizes that the greatest commandments are, first, to love God, and, second, to love your neighbor as yourself. In this proclamation Jesus makes clear that such love is connected—you cannot properly love God without loving your neighbor. Today's offertory anthem is the world premiere of René Clausen's new anthem "It Is Well with My Soul," which was recently commissioned in honor of the Chapel Choir.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

The Great Commandment

Donald P. Moore
(b. 1946)

Thou shalt love the Lord, thou shalt love thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy soul. This is the first and great commandment, and the second is like it: thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.
—Matthew 22:37-40

ANTHEM

It Is Well with My Soul

René Clausen
(b. 1952)

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

It is well, with my soul,

It is well, with my soul,

It is well, it is well, with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed his own blood for my soul.

He liveth, the bliss of this glorious thought;
My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to his cross and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

Lord, hasten the day when our faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll,
And the trumpet shall sound and the Lord shall descend;
Even so, it is well with my soul.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON—1 Thessalonians 2:1-8 (NT pages 191-92)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

*GRADUAL HYMN 164 (stanza 1)

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for this morning are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God's call for their lives through study, counsel, service, and community. Dr. Charles and Mrs. Ann Sanders, together with a couple who have asked not to be named, have pledged to match all PathWays gifts on a one-to-one basis up to $60,000.

TODAY'S ORGAN PRELUDE—Yesterday was the 200th anniversary of the birth of composer Franz Liszt (October 22, 1811). Myriad concerts, festivals, and conferences around the world have been devoted to the music of Liszt this year. The prelude this morning features two of the numerous works he wrote for the organ.

TODAY'S COMMISSIONED ANTHEM—The offertory anthem today, "It Is Well with My Soul," is the first-ever performance of a new work by composer René Clausen. It was recently commissioned by Tom Link, a longtime member of the Chapel Choir, "to honor the family that is the Duke University Chapel Choir, its conductor Dr. Rodney Wynkoop, and its accompanist and organist Dr. David Arcus, in appreciation for the many years of inspiration and blessings gratefully received by me and so many others." The original hymn "It Is Well With My Soul" was composed in 1873 by Horatio G. Spafford after the tragic loss of his four daughters, who perished during the sinking of the S. S. Ville du Havre. The hymn (known as VILLE DE HAVRE) is a testament to unwavering trust and faith in God in the midst of unimaginable sorrow. The Chapel Choir is very grateful to Tom Link for his kind and generous gift, and to Dr. Clausen for the great artistry and imagination that he has shown in this and many other beautiful compositions.

PATHWAYS CHAPEL SCHOLARS—Among the many students who connect with Duke Chapel throughout the year, a select group displays a unique commitment to discovering how to connect their talents and passions with the world's deepest needs. These students, called Chapel Scholars, form the backbone of PathWays programming by participating widely in courses, discernment groups, mission trips, summer internships, and community service. Scholars also meet regularly with Chapel staff, gather for meals and discussions, and become eligible to receive generous grants for mission and service trips. Interested students are encouraged to speak with Adam Hollowell (adam.hollowell@duke.edu). Applications are due Friday, October 28. For application forms or more information, visit <http://www.chapel.duke.edu/pathways/scholars.html>
