

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost

November 11, 2007

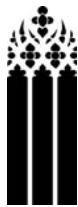

Eleven o'clock in the morning

❖ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ❖

Model of the Second Temple in Jerusalem

This morning's scripture lessons are connected by their references to the temple. In Haggai, the prophet speaks of the former glory of the first temple while promising restoration and even greater splendor for the future. The passage in 1 Corinthians shifts the location of the temple, God's dwelling place, to the community of faith by asking, "Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's spirit dwells in you?" Luke's gospel carries with it a critique of the Sadducees and their emphasis on temple religion in Jesus' response to their query about the resurrection.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

They praise thy name evermore!

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FLOWERS—The flowers are given to the glory of God and in honor of the birthday of Mary Duke Biddle, by her daughter, Mary Duke Biddle Trent Semans and family.

TODAY'S OFFERING—The Mission of the Month for November is the children's mission of All God's Children in Aulander, NC. All God's Children is located in one of the most impoverished rural areas in North Carolina, the northeast coastal plain, in a community of 1100 people that has high unemployment and an extremely high crime rate. All God's Children has developed a number of programs to try to meet the needs of children and youth in rural Bertie, Hertford, and Northampton counties. Under the auspices of the United Methodist Church, they run a preschool and an after-school program. In addition, All God's Children purchases $500-$1500 of fresh food, which it distributes (in addition to its food bank of canned food) to over 1200 people from the surrounding region twice a month. The program also operates a distribution center that helps provide people with clothing, furniture, and wood to heat their homes.

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Copies of today's sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just after you enter the front doors of the Chapel. A downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons each week are available on our website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

MESSIAH SING-ALONG CANCELLED—The annual Messiah Sing-Along will not be held this year due to the reconditioning of the Aeolian Organ. The Sing-Along will be held next year on November 23, 2008.

CHAPEL POSITION AVAILABLE—The Chapel is looking for a full-time Chapel Host or Hostess. The position requires a focus on hospitality and visitor relations. Preference given to those with demonstrated expertise in guest relations or member services. Candidates must have strong computer skills coupled with thorough knowledge of Duke Chapel and University history and operations. A cover letter and resume should be sent to Gaston Warner at g.warner@duke.edu by November 19.
