"Destruction of Jerusalem Foretold," by unknown artist. Published 1895.

In today's gospel lesson from Mark, Jesus foretells the destruction of the temple at Jerusalem. He says, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down." Jesus' words are doubly significant because the temple is not just a building of stone and mortar, but represents the relationship of God and his people. Jesus is saying this relationship is now located in his own body. Thus the letter to the Hebrews, addressed to those who had seen the temple destroyed, proclaims that "Christ offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins," thus mediating between us and God in a way the temple had never finally succeeded in doing.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Nation Shall Not Lift Up a Sword Against Nation R. Vaughan Williams
(from Dona nobis pacem) (1872-1958)

Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. And none shall make them afraid, neither shall the sword go through their land. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Open to me the gates of righteousness, I will go into them. Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled; and let them hear, and say, it is truth. And it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and see my glory. And I will set a sign among them, and they shall declare my glory among the nations. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, so shall your seed and your name remain for ever. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will toward men.

—adapted from Micah 4:3, Leviticus 26:6,
Psalms 85:10 and 118:19, Isaiah 43:9 and 66:18-22, Luke 2:14

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

SUNDAY CLASSES—Adult Forum and the Lectionary Discussion Group meet each Sunday (except for second Sundays) at 9:45 a.m. in Room 0012 Westbrook. The speaker for November 22 is Monika Johnson Hostler, Executive Director of N.C. Coalition Against Sexual Assault. Her topic will be “Human Trafficking in North Carolina.” The lectionary discussion group meets in Room 110 Gray Building.

THANKSGIVING LUNCH—The Congregation is hosting its annual Thanksgiving potluck on Sunday November 22 immediately after worship in the Chapel basement lounge. Students and choir members are invited to join the Congregation in this meal and need only to bring a healthy appetite. Come feast and be thankful with us.

SHARE YOUR CHRISTMAS—This month, the Local Missions Team of the Congregation will be participating in the Duke Center for Civic Engagement Share Your Holidays project. This program supplies donated new gifts to disadvantaged Durham citizens who might not otherwise have Christmas gifts. You will be able to pick individuals to help, beginning today, and we will be collecting gifts through Sunday, December 6. Look for the Christmas Angel bulletin board as you leave the Chapel after worship.

HEIFER INTERNATIONAL—For the eighth consecutive year, the children and youth of the Congregation will be raising money to benefit Heifer International. Children’s Classes will be selling greeting cards, which are suitable as Christmas cards or for other purposes. The Youth Group will sponsor the Living Gift Market, allowing people the chance to support Heifer through purchasing bees, tree seedlings, cows, or other livestock. Look for the children and youth by the front steps of the Chapel following the Sunday services from November 22 through December 13.

HABITAT HOUSE—The Congregation at Duke Chapel is partnering with Duke students this fall to build a Habitat for Humanity house at 918 Morehead Avenue. Work has begun and will continue each Saturday until the house is completed. Anyone over sixteen years of age is invited to participate. For more information, or to volunteer for a Saturday morning or afternoon shift, please visit <http://www2.mysignup.com/dukehabitat> or contact John Boswell at john.boswell@sas.com. TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. Duke's desire that the building exert a profound influence on the lives of the young women and men who attend the university.

TODAY'S COMMUNION HYMN—Today's choir communion hymn is offered in commemoration of its author, the Rev. Dr. Fred Kaan, who died in early October. A minister in the United Reformed Church in England, he was one of the most prolific and influential hymn writers of our day, with more than 200 titles and with translations into more than fifteen languages.
