In the second Sunday of Lent, the scripture lessons emphasize faith and obedience. In Genesis God calls Abraham from his home to be a blessing to the earth. He follows this command, even in the face of uncertainty. Paul’s letter to the Romans emphasizes that Abraham’s obedience was rooted in belief and confidence in Israel’s God. In John’s gospel, Jesus tells Nicodemus that he must be born again. In doing so, Jesus intimates that Nicodemus, though a leader among the Pharisees, does not yet understand true obedience which grows from loving trust in the living God.
DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-684-2572

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS
† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
† For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today’s docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
† Hearing assist units are available at the sound board and a Braille hymnal is available at the attendant’s desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN
† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children’s bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

INTROIT
Sicut Moses Heinrich Schütz
(1585-1672)

Sicut Moses serpentem in deserto exaltavit, ita filium hominis, oportet exaltari, ut omnis qui credit in eum non pereat, sed habeat vitam aeternam.

Thus as Moses once lifted up the serpent in the desert, even so must the son of man be evermore exalted, that all who have faith will never die, but will have life eternal.

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN (see the bulletin insert for music)
Love Divine, All Loves Excelling BLAENWERN

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
The minister offers words of confession in three biddings, to which the congregation responds as follows:

Lord have mercy.

Lord have mercy.

Christ have mercy.

Christ have mercy.

Lord have mercy.

Lord have mercy.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)
PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Almighty God, in the hearing of your word and by the prayer and discipline of Lent, may we enter into the mystery of Christ's sufferings and, by following in his Way, come to share in his glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON—Genesis 12:1-4a (page 9 in the pew Bible)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

For You So Loved (from Jesus and Nicodemus)

David Arcus

(b. 1959)

For you so loved the world that you gave your only son—not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him; so that all who believe in him should not perish, but have eternal life!

—John 3:16-17

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON—Romans 4:1-5, 13-17 (page 144)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

*GRADUAL HYMN 388 (stanzas 1-2)

O Come and Dwell in Me

(All turn to face the Gospel Procession.)

GOSPEL LESSON—John 3:1-17 (page 88)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

*GRADUAL HYMN 388 (stanzas 3-4)

O Come and Dwell in Me

ST. MICHAEL

SERMON—Born Again

RESPONSE

THE APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
CALL TO PRAYER
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

OFFERTORY
The Church’s One Foundation Samuel Sebastian Wesley (congregation sings text in bold) (1810-1876)
arr. John Ferguson

The Church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the Word.
From heaven he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation, yet one over all the earth;
Her charter of salvation: One Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses with every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder this world sees her oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder, by heresies distressed,
Yet saints their watch are keeping; their cry goes up: “How long?”
And soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

How long, how long? Through toil and tribulation and tumult of her war,
She waits, she waits, she waits for peace forevermore;
Till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth has union with God, the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
O blessed heavenly chorus! Lord, save us by your grace,
That we, like saints before us, may see you face to face.

*DOXOLOGY OLD HUNDREDTH
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THANKSGIVING
This morning we give thanks for the Duke University School of Law. We celebrate its dedication to training students to be servants of local and global communities through their passion for the law and their pursuit of justice. A representative brings a gavel to the altar.

In Durham we lift up all who are creating homes of hospitality for those living with HIV/AIDS. A representative brings a red ribbon to the altar.

Organ Recital Today

This afternoon at 5:00 p.m., English organist John Scott will present a recital in the Chapel featuring the Brombaugh and Flentrop organs. Scott was for many years Organist and Director of Music at St. Paul’s Cathedral in London. Since 2004 he has served in a similar position at St. Thomas Church, New York City.
TODAY’S OFFERING—Today’s offering will be used to support the Chapel’s PathWays program that offers undergraduates and recent graduates varied opportunities to discern God’s call for their lives. Our extended Lilly grant requires a 50% match from the Chapel.

DEANS’ DIALOGUE—This first Deans’ Dialogue of the spring semester will take place on Tuesday, February 19, with Duke Chapel Dean Sam Wells in conversation with Nicholas School of the Environment Dean William Chameides. Wells and Chameides will discuss the question: "What would you do with $100 million?" The 5:15 p.m. event will be held in Love Auditorium in the Levine Science Research Center. The dialogue is free and the public is invited to attend. Free pizza will be available for early arrivers.

ST. JOHN PASSION—The combined Chamber Choirs of the Choral Society of Durham and the Duke University Chorale, with professional orchestra, will perform Bach’s beloved setting of the Passion story as told in the Gospel of John. Soloists include James Doing (singing the role of the Evangelist), Mary Gayle Greene, Don Milholin, and Wade Henderson and Kristen Blackman from the Chapel Choir. The concert will be presented next Sunday, February 24, at 3:00 p.m. in Duke Chapel. Tickets are available at the University Box Office.

OPEN POSITION—The Duke Chapel PathWays program is looking for a person who will coordinate and manage an intensive program for approximately thirty to forty Lilly Scholars. The employee will envision, plan, and implement the Scholars’ academic year curriculum, events, community activities, and assist the Program Director in coordinating the Summer Internship program. He or she will also mentor the Scholars to help them to grow spiritually and intellectually. A full job description is available at www.chapel.duke.edu/pathways. Please express interest to Keith Daniel at 668-0476 before February 18.

16TH ANNUAL VIGIL AGAINST VIOLENCE—The Religious Coalition for a Nonviolent Durham holds an annual vigil to remember all those who have died violently in Durham during the past year. Thirty-three people were killed in Durham in 2007, and many of these were young. Six teenagers and eleven young adults, all in their twenties, died violently. The vigil remembers those who have died and offers comfort to families and friends touched by their deaths. Along with family and friends, this is an opportunity for congregations and faith communities throughout the city to come together seeking peace. The vigil will be on Thursday, February 21, 7:00 p.m. at Carr United Methodist Church (107 N. Driver Street), with reception immediately following. If you have questions, please contact Community Minister, the Rev. Abby Kocher, at abby.kocher@duke.edu or 599-8010.
The Congregation at Duke University Chapel
919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Adult Forum—On February 24, Dean Sam Wells will speak on his book God’s Companions. The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building at 9:45 a.m.

Gulf Coast Relief Trip—The Congregation will take a team to do hurricane relief work in Biloxi, Mississippi from March 9-15. The cost will be approximately $100, and is open to anyone. If you are interested, please contact Dave and Judi Vos at 403-0584 or dlvos@earthlink.net.

School and Cleaning Supply Collection—The Congregation is collecting necessary supplies for EDGE, an academic achievement agency in Durham. Please bring any of the following next Sunday, February 24: wide-ruled lined notebook paper, ink pens, #2 pencils, copy paper, 1-inch 3-ring binders, hand sanitizer, toilet bowl cleaner, and liquid soap. Contributions may be left on the back pew of the Chapel after worship.

Card Sale for Gabriel Tempest—The Godly Play children’s class is selling note cards to support Gabriel Tempest, five-year-old son of Congregation members Roddy and Connie Tempest who has cerebral palsy, as he travels to St. Louis, Missouri, for major surgery next week. The cards feature Gabriel’s own artwork and will be available at a table by the front steps of the Chapel after services this week and next. For more information, please contact Melanie Schlimm at nannymelanie@gmail.com.

Crop Walk—The Durham CROP Hunger Walk will take place in front of Duke Chapel on Sunday, March 16. Please consider signing up to participate, or sponsor another walker. For more information or to sign up, please visit the CROP table outside the Chapel after worship today.

Dinner at Urban Ministries—Members of the Congregation plan to serve dinner to guests at the Durham Urban Ministries Center on Wednesday, February 27. If you would like to prepare a "family size" baked lasagna, help serve the meal, or both, please contact Ned Arnett at edward.arnett@duke.edu. We are also looking for a volunteer to assist Ned in organizing these monthly dinners. If you would like to help, please contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at nancyfc@duke.edu.

Spiritual Life Retreat—This annual retreat will be led by Dr. Jenny Yates, Jungian analyst and religion professor at UNC-Wilmington. The topic will be “Dreams of the Inner Christ and Resurrection.” This is an opportunity to learn about the ways in which dreams may be a wellspring of our spiritual lives. The event will take place on Saturday, March 15, from 9:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. at Duke Memorial United Methodist Church. Cost is $10 which includes lunch. If you are interested, please contact Terry Yuschok at yuschok@mindspring.com.
Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

1. Love divine, all loves excelling, joy of heav’n, to earth come down;
faithful mercies crown!
Passion, pure, unbounded love thou art;
thy salvation; enter every trembling heart.

2. Breathe, o breathe thy loving Spirit into ev’ry life received;
suddenly return and never, never let us be.
fulfilling that second rest.
Underneath the shadow of King David’s wall of testimonies.
its beginning, set our hearts at liberty.

3. Come, almighty to deliver, let us all thy troubl’d breast!
Let us see thy great salvation perfect.
more thy temples leave. Thee we would be always hyred in thee; changed from glory into

4. Finish, then, thy new creation; pure and spotless fix in us thy humble dwelling; all thy life received;
suddenly return and never, never let us be.
Let us see thy great salvation perfect.
fulfilling that second rest.
more thy temples leave. Thee we would be always hyred in thee; changed from glory into

DUKE CHAPEL SPONSORS THE UPCOMING RENOVARÉ CONFERENCE

Friday, February 29 - Saturday, March 1
Chapel Hill Bible Church

Have you longed for a deeper relationship with God? Renovaré (Latin meaning “to renew”) is a conference on spiritual renewal led by Richard Foster, author of the classic book, A Celebration of Discipline. This conference will give Christians and Christian organizations of all denominations a plan for revitalizing, deepening, and renewing their relationships with God. Renovaré will explore the Church’s historic role in personal and corporate spiritual formation. Participants will rediscover time-tested, practical tools for growing spiritually. The conference provides a strategy for renewal and spiritual growth that combines the best from six historic traditions of Christian faith. For more information visit www.biblechurch.org/renovare.
