For what do you thirst? The scripture lessons today draw us deeper into Lent by prodding us to consider this question. In Exodus, the Israelites face the terror of the desert and its deprivation of water. They take their anger out on Moses, who reveals God’s provision when he strikes the rock at Horeb and water bursts forth. The story of Jesus and the Samaritan woman in John’s gospel also takes place by a water source. The woman comes looking for physical water but departs having encountered Jesus, the living water, who calls her to drink from the well of eternal life.

Sicut cervus
Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina
(1525-1594)

Sicut cervus desiderat ad fontes aquarum, ita desiderat anima mea ad te deus. Sitivit anima mea ad Deum fortem vivum: quando veniam et aparebo ante faciem Dei? Fuerunt mihi lacrymae meae panes die ac nocte, dum dicitur mihi quotidie: Ubi est Deus tuus?

As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul for you, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God? My tears have been my bread day and night, while people say to me continually, “Where Is Your God?”

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 529
How Firm a Foundation

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

unto Him; O hear, and your souls shall live forever. —Isaiah 55:1, 3

And then shall your light break forth as the light of the morning breaketh; and your health shall speedily spring forth then; and the

Praise God, all creatures here below;

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Department of Classical Studies. We celebrate its exploration of the ancient worlds of Greece and Rome and the way these cultures continue to influence the world today. The ushers bring a copy of Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics to the altar.

In Durham we lift up those who have been scarred by unhealthy relationships. A representative brings forward a purple ribbon, symbolizing solidarity with victims and survivors of domestic abuse, and a blue ribbon, symbolizing solidarity with victims and survivors of child abuse.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee J. B. Dykes (1823-1876)
arr. Daniel E. Gawthrop

Jesus, the very thought of thee with sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see, and in thy presence rest.

Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame, nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than thy blest name, O Savior of mankind!

O hope of every contrite heart, O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind thou art! How good to those who seek!

Jesus, our only joy be thou, as thou our prize will be;
Jesus, be thou our glory now, and through eternity.

He is a member of Duke Chapel’s Theological Think Tank and InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. On campus he serves as an economics tutor and resident assistant. He traveled with a group from Duke Chapel to Christ in the Desert Monastery his freshman year. During his sophomore year, Andrew helped coach a youth basketball team in downtown Durham. He is passionate about sports, and enjoys playing basketball, golf, and tennis in his spare time. After he graduates, Andrew hopes to work in management consulting.
TODAY’S OFFERING—Today’s offering supports the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. A stipend along with housing, meals, and a mission trip allowance are provided. Applications are available at www.chapel.duke.edu/pathways. Contact the Rev. Keith Daniel at kd1@duke.edu for additional information.

The keepsake bowls are a reminder that there are many community members who go hungry each day. Funds raised through the Empty Bowls Event will be designated to purchase food for Urban Ministries’ Community Kitchen and Community Food Pantry. To volunteer or to donate a dessert, please contact Jeanne Chang at 682-0538 ext. 63 or jchang@umdurham.org.
