It can be difficult to follow the voice of God in the face of the great unknown. Today’s lesson from Genesis describes the call of Abram to go to a land the Lord would reveal to him—Abram obeyed the call. In the gospel, Jesus calls Matthew, a tax collector, to leave everything and follow him. Matthew followed. The letter to the church in Galatia reminds the early Christians that it was Abraham’s belief and trust in following God that rendered him as righteous, and not legalism around the law. True obedience grows out of love, not obligation.

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

People: And also with you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY’S FLOWERS—The flowers for today’s worship service are provided by the Erlenbach Family Trust for the glory of God.

TODAY’S OFFERING—The whole of today’s offering will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need, but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

CONCERT BY THE VOCAL ARTS ENSEMBLE—Tonight at 5:00 p.m., the 33 singers of the Vocal Arts Ensemble will present a concert of unaccompanied choral music in a program called “Beyond All Mortal Dream,” conducted by founding director Rodney Wynkoop. Works by Tavener, Paulus, Whitacre, and Mendelssohn will be included, as well as lively pieces by two less familiar contemporary composers: Aaron Jay Kernis and Jaakko Mäntyjärvi. Tickets are $15 general admission through the University Box Office at 684-4444. Students with ID are admitted free.

MORNING PRAYER—During the summer months we gather for morning prayer each Monday at 9:00 a.m. in the Memorial Chapel. Services last approximately 20 minutes and are led by members of the Chapel staff. All are invited to this time of prayer and reflection.

GENESIS HOME COLLECTION—On Sunday, June 15, the Congregation at Duke Chapel is collecting paper towels, kitchen size trash bags, and new or gently used pots and pans for Genesis Home, which is an organization that works to end homelessness in Durham for families with children, and for young people, by providing shelter and teaching life skills to foster independence. Monetary contributions and checks made out to Genesis Home will also be accepted to purchase some larger items. Contributions may be left on the back pew of the Chapel on June 15, or they may be brought to the Congregation office any time prior to June 15.
