Sometimes people presume that the attempt to be righteous limits individual freedom. In this morning's lesson from Romans, Paul counters this suggestion by arguing we are all slaves to something, be it sin or righteousness. A life of immorality is not the same as freedom, because we can just as easily become bound by the sins we grow to love. The cross of Christ enables the chains of sin to be broken. In Matthew's gospel, the disciples are given encouragement for their journey, in the knowledge that many times their words of good news and freedom would not be seen as such.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

Trust in the Lord

Daniel E. Gawthrop
(b. 1949)

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Office of the University Counsel. We celebrate how their employees work to ensure the University is compliant with the order of law. A representative brings a law book to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those who facilitate our buying goods that have been fairly traded. The ushers bring forward a hand-made basket from One World Market.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting B, on page 19 of the hymnal. The leader will sing each phrase of the responses, and the congregation repeats.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER

This morning we welcome the Rev. Dr. Richard Lischer as a Bishop W. Kenneth Goodson Distinguished Guest Preacher. Richard Lischer is James T. and Alice Mead Cleland Professor of Preaching in Duke Divinity School, where he has been a member of the faculty since 1979. An ordained Lutheran clergyman, he served parishes in Illinois and Virginia before coming to Duke. In much of his writing, he has focused on the uniqueness of the proclaimed gospel among the discourses of the world. Professor Lischer was recently honored with a lifetime achievement award by the Academy of Homiletics. He lives with his wife Tracy in Orange County.
