As people of God, we seek God’s assurance that he is among us, because it becomes very easy to place our trust in other things. In Exodus, Moses reveals some of the same doubts of the rest of the people of Israel by seeking to ensure that God will go with them on the journey while also desiring a concrete glimpse of God. In Matthew, the Pharisees pose a question to Jesus about the payment of taxes. Jesus responds by saying, “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

Hide Not Thou Thy Face From Us

Richard Farrant
(ca. 1530-1580)

Hide not thou thy face from us, O Lord, and cast not off thy servants in thy displeasure; for we confess our sins unto thee, and hide not our unrighteousness. For thy mercy’s sake deliver us from all our sins.

—Psalm 27:9

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 66

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION
This morning we give thanks to the Department of Biomedical Engineering. We celebrate its vision to create engineering knowledge and novel biomedical technology that improve the human condition through the advancement of clinical care and biomedical science. The ushers bring an artificial hip-joint to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those who are foster parents and all who are adoptive parents to children who need a nurturing environment, and for the children themselves who long for a stable home. The ushers bring forward an overnight bag.
THE GREAT THANKSGIVING
(Musical Setting A, on page 17 of the hymnal)

THE LORD’S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE
All those who have become members of Christ’s body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

MUSIC DURING DISTRIBUTION

HYMN 623 (sung by all)
Here, O My Lord, I See Thee

COMMUNION ANTHEM
Immortal, Invisible
arr. Eric H. Thiman (1900-1975)

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
in light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
thy justice like mountains high soaring above
thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all, life thou givest to both great and small;
in all life thou livest, the true life of all;
we blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
and wither and perish, but nought changeth thee.

Great Father of Glory, pure Father of Light,
thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight;
all laud we would render: O help us to see
’tis only the splendor of light hideth thee. Amen.

—Walter Chalmers Smith
