Service of Worship

Twenty-Sixth Sunday

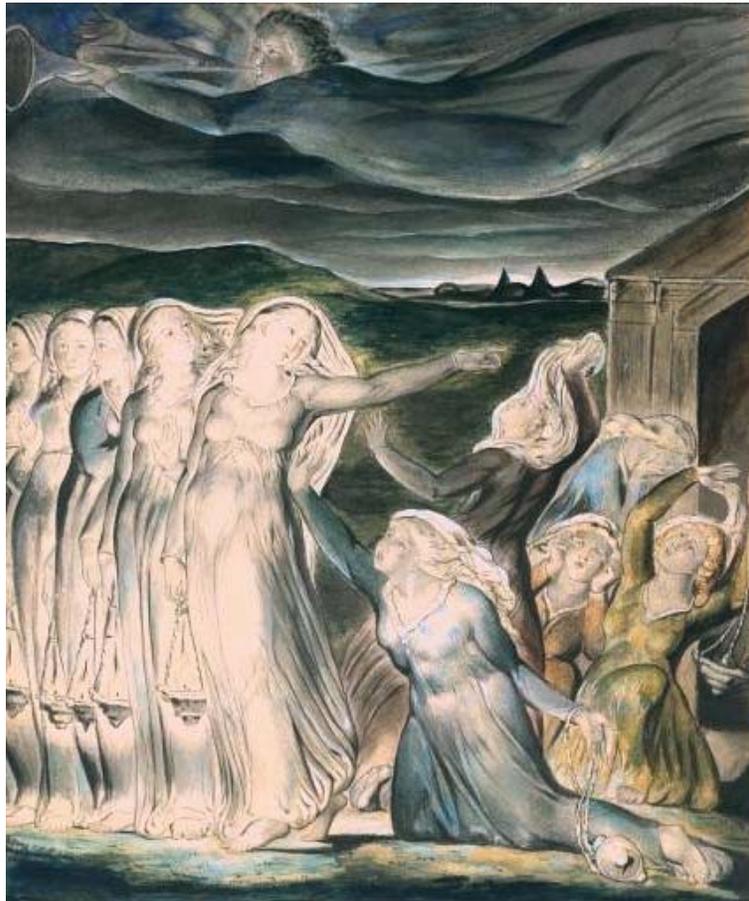

After Pentecost

November 9, 2008

Eleven o'clock in the morning

Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God

"Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins," by William Blake, 1822

A life of faith is often about the choices we make. Joshua calls the people of Israel to make a decision about whom they will serve, and where they will place their hope. Will it be the foreign gods of their ancestors, or the Lord who redeemed them out of Egypt? The gospel of Matthew recounts the parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids. In this parable, half of the bridesmaids had chosen wisely to bring extra oil for their lamps, and the other half didn't. The readings between All Saints Sunday and the season of Advent turn our attention to God's final judgment, and cause us to reflect on the crucial judgments that make up our own lives in light of this judgment.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will also be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER

This morning we welcome Jean Vanier as our distinguished guest preacher. Jean Vanier is the founder of L'Arche, an international network of family-like homes where people with and without disabilities share their lives together. They witness to the reality that persons with disabilities possess inherent qualities of welcome, wonderment, spirituality, and friendship. In his early twenties, Vanier left a promising career as a naval officer to study philosophy and theology at the Institut Catholique in Paris. There he met Father Thomas Philippe, a Dominican priest and professor who became Vanier's friend and spiritual mentor. Through the influence of Father Thomas, Vanier moved to Trosly, France, in 1964 to live with people with intellectual disabilities, founding the first L'Arche community. For over four decades, Jean Vanier has given his life to nurturing L'Arche, which has grown to include over 135 communities in 36 countries. Vanier has received many prestigious awards for his work, and his books have been translated into 29 languages. He continues to live as a member of the L'Arche community in Trosly.
