Service of Worship

Second Sunday after the Epiphany

January 14, 2007

Eleven o'clock in the Morning

Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God

"The Wedding at Cana" by Gerard David, 1500

This Sunday the lectionary tells a tale of two marriages. Isaiah proclaims words of comfort to a people wearied by exile by reminding them that God loves Israel as a bridegroom loves his bride, and that Jerusalem will become a light to all the nations. The story of Jesus turning the water into wine in the wedding at Cana is a tale of celebration and transformation. In a culture that valued antiquity, this first miracle, where the new wine was the best wine, foreshadows the new work that God was doing through Christ. We welcome the Bishop Michael Curry and the Duke Jazz Ambassadors to our service of worship.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue and service.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister then speaks words of assurance.

OFFERTORY

Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit

William L. Dawson
(1898-1990)

Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.
Yes, ev'ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.
Upon the mountain, my Lord spoke,
Out of his mouth came fire and smoke.
Looked all around me, it looked so fine,
Till I asked my Lord if all was mine.
Jordan river is chilly an' cold,
It chills the body, but not the soul;
There ain't but one train upon this track,
It runs to heaven an' right back.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Department of Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) for its dedication to serving the Duke student community through their deep care for students struggling with various forms of brokenness, and for helping students find wholeness and healing in mind, body, and spirit. A representative brings a CAPS brochure and departmental symbol to the altar.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.
