Service of Worship

Third Sunday after the Epiphany

What does it mean to be the people of God? The scripture lessons this morning seek to answer that question. In Nehemiah, Ezra publicly reads the words of the law, and the people respond by weeping at the demand. However, Ezra and Nehemiah comfort the crowd by saying the day is holy and joyous for God's people, implying that the law is a gift, not a burden. In Luke, Jesus quotes Isaiah and speaks to the liberating nature of God's action in the world—a vision of jubilee where sight is recovered, and those captive are released. In I Corinthians, Paul encourages followers of Christ to appreciate their different gifts and pursue harmony in being the body of Christ for the world. The topic of the sermon today is what it means to live as the body of Christ and the image above represents the body of Christ at worship in Duke Chapel

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue and service.

SERMON—I Have No Need of You

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY

The Spirit of the Lord Is upon Me

Edward Elgar
(1857-1934)

The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord, to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

—Isaiah 61:1-3, 11

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for the faculty, staff, and students of the School of Medicine whose lives are dedicated to the physical care and healing of those people who suffer because of accident or illness and who walk with patients through times of darkness and despair. Representatives bring a stethoscope and white coat to the altar. Two white roses are also brought forward in memory of Carrie Largent and Raja Das, two medical students who died last year.
