The passage from Paul's first letter to the church in Corinth is one of the most well-known passages in all of Christian scripture for its reflection on love. In writing to the Corinthians, Paul seeks to rebuke the spiritual pride of the community. The love he advocates is not a disembodied love, but a love lived out within the community and profoundly connected to the love we encounter in the cross of Christ. In Luke Jesus tells his followers that "no prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown," a reminder that sometimes the voice of love may be heard and rejected.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Though I Speak With the Tongues of Men

Edward C. Bairstow
(1874-1946)

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up. Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail: whether there be tongues, they shall cease: or whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: Now I know in part, but then I shall know even as I am known. And now abideth faith, hope and charity, but the greatest of these is charity.

—1 Corinthians 13:1-4, 7-9, 12-13

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Department of English. We celebrate the ways it cultivates an appreciation for literature and the written word. The arts of reading and writing frequently capture the imagination, connect with the human experience, and touch the heart. A representative brings a book of poetry to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who are wealthy. We pray that they might have generous hearts, and that they may also come to receive the gifts the poor have to give. A representative brings forward a checkbook.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting A, on page 17 of the hymnal)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.
