CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 11, 2007

Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ≈

The Church of the Beatitudes in Galilee, Israel

Both of today's scripture passages reflect on consequences and blessings. In Jeremiah, those who place their trust in human things are said to be like a withering desert shrub, whereas those who trust in the Lord will flourish like those planted by water. In Luke, Jesus blesses and gives hope of future promise to the poor, the hungry, the weeping, and the persecuted, while also carrying a word of warning for the rich, satisfied, and joyful. The prosperity that is so valued by the world is turned upside down by Jesus, who instead honors those who are weak and weary.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 73

O Worship the King LYONS

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Almighty God, you have created the heavens and the earth and made us in your own image. As we hear your word this morning, teach us to discern your hand in all your works and your likeness in all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST LESSON—Jeremiah 17:5-10 (page 676 in the pew Bible)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

ANTHEM

Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether

Harold W. Friedell
(1905-1958)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether; for when humbly, in thy name, two or three are met together, thou art in the midst of them: Alleluia! Alleluia! Touch we now thy garment's hem.

As the brethren used to gather in the name of Christ to sup, then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup: Alleluia! Alleluia! So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of thee, that by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be. Alleluia! Alleluia! We will serve thee faithfully.

*GRADUAL HYMN 475 (stanzas 1 and 2)

OFFERTORY

The Beatitudes

Craig DeAlmeida
(b. 1978)

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people revile you.
Blessed are you when people persecute you.
Blessed are you when people utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.

—Matthew 5:3-12a

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Department of Art and Art History for the ways they seek to give concrete form to imagination through the production of art, while also demonstrating the profound ways that artwork both reflects and speaks to social and cultural contexts. Ushers bring a book of sacred art to the altar.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

ABOUT TODAY'S STUDENT PREACHER

Claire Dietrich is a fifth-year senior, fulfilling a double major in Cultural Anthropology and International Comparative Studies, with a minor in Religion. She has recently returned to Duke following a nine-month medical leave of absence. Her time at Duke has allowed her opportunities to explore her passion for both local and international social justice. She was active in the Episcopal Center and served on the vestry as junior and then senior warden. Claire also helped develop the Center for Race Relations her freshman year. She designed and taught the house course "Black and White or Shades of Grey" for two semesters and served as a facilitator at "Common Ground," an intensive human relations immersion retreat. She studied abroad over the summers, in Ghana and then in Turkey, and was the student organizer for an ecumenical pilgrimage to Israel/Palestine during her junior year. Claire participated in Duke Chapel's mission trip to Honduras as a sophomore and looks forward to joining another Chapel team this spring break to visit the monastic community of Christ in the Desert, New Mexico. Next year she hopes to serve a church in the Middle East and to improve her Arabic.
