“Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy?” This poignant question from Isaiah is especially provocative in a culture of rampant consumerism. The passage in Isaiah paints a vision of feasting, where hunger and thirst are satisfied abundantly by being in the presence of God. Fasting during Lent provides the opportunity to stand in solidarity with those for whom daily bread is a daily struggle, while also reminding us of that for which we truly hunger—Christ Jesus. As we celebrate Holy Communion this morning, we feast on the presence of God among us. Today's preacher, Bishop Hutchinson, has been a key leader for the United Methodist Church along the Gulf Coast in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

Go Where I Send Thee!

Spiritual
arr. Caldwell and Ivory

Children, go where I send thee. How shall I send thee?

I'm gonna send thee one by one. One for the little bitty baby.

He was born! Born! Born in Bethlehem.

Two was for Paul and Silas.

Three was for the Hebrew children.

He was born....

Four came knockin' at the door. Somebody's knockin' at the door!

Oh sinner, why don't you answer? Somebody's knockin' at your door.

I shall send thee five by five. Five for the Gospel preachers.

I shall send thee six by six. Six was the six that couldn't get fixed.

Seven went up to heaven.

Eight was the eight that stood at the gate.

Nine was the nine that got left behind!

Ten by ten cause ten was the ten commandments.

He was born.....

If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.*

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER

Today we welcome as our guest preacher Bishop William Hutchinson of the Louisiana area of the United Methodist Church. He is a native of New Mexico and spent most of his pastoral career serving churches there prior to his election as bishop in 2000.

Bishop Hutchinson attended the University of Oklahoma and Duke Divinity School, and he has honorary doctorates from McMurray University and Centenary College. He is active in numerous regional and national boards of the United Methodist Church, with a particular passion for helping people to discern their vocation, both in secular fields and in ordained ministry. To this end, he chaired several Exploration events (designed for youth considering ordained ministry) and he also created the Discerner's Academy, which has proven a successful tool for vocational discernment in the Louisiana region. Bishop Hutchinson has a deep commitment to the spiritual formation of clergy and laity as a way to nurture the flourishing of the Church.

He is married to Kay Aitken Hutchinson and has two adult sons.
