Service of Worship

First Sunday in Lent
March 13, 2011
Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"A Prophet in the Wilderness," by William Blake, c 1820.

Today is the first Sunday in the season of Lent, when we are invited to examine the roots of our Christian discipleship and identify Jesus' journey to the cross. The early Sundays are a wilderness time, an opportunity to go deep into our hearts and the souls of our communities, to recognize the horror and depth of our estrangement from God, and to begin systematically to put things right. It has been our tradition at the Chapel to chant the Great Litany during Lent, often on the first Sunday. This year the Chapel will chant the litany next week after the choir returns from spring break. The Chapel observes the tradition of removing Alleluias or flowers in the sanctuary during Lent: these will return with a burst of joy on Easter Day.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent
during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.*

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 142

If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee WER NUR DEN LIEBEN GOTT

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Almighty God, whose son fasted forty days in the wilderness, and was tempted as we are, yet was without sin; as we are formed by your word today, give us grace to discipline ourselves in obedience to your Spirit; and, as you know our weakness, so may we know your power to save. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON—Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

SERMON—Something Better

RESPONSE

SERMON RESPONSE

Eternally Content

Brittany Newsome
(b. 1985)

Though an earthly want cause my heart to grieve,
Though temptation will arise
The greatest good I could e'er receive
Is the Savior's sacrifice

My greatest thirst long ago was quenched
by the precious blood of Christ
And my greatest hunger, the bread of heaven already satisfied

O, Savior! Savior!
With this sacrament
My heart, my soul
Eternally content!

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

O lux beatissima

Howard Helvey
(b. 1968)

O Light most blessed
Fill the inmost heart
Of all thy faithful.

Without your grace
There is nothing in us,
Nothing that is not harmful.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for Duke Forest and all those who work to cultivate and maintain it for the enjoyment of so many people. The ushers bring a branch to the altar.

In Durham we remember those who strive to tell truthful local histories. A representative brings forward a tobacco leaf.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting D, on page 23 of the hymnal)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

My Song is Love Unknown

Edwin T. Childs
(b. 1945)

My song is love unknown,
My Savior's love to me;
Love to the loveless shown,
That they might lovely be.
O who am I, that for my sake
My Lord should take, frail flesh and die?

Sometimes they strew His way,
And His sweet praises sing;

Resounding all the day
Hosannas to their King:
Then “Crucify!” is all their breath,
And for His death they thirst and cry.

Why, what hath my Lord done?
What makes this rage and spite?
He made the lame to run,
He gave the blind their sight,
What injuries! Yet these are why
The Lord most high so cruelly dies.

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER

Our Peter Gomes Guest Preacher this morning is The Rev. Dr. Clarence G. Newsome. Dr. Newsome is a member of the Duke Board of Trustees, and a former member of the Divinity School faculty, Dean of the Howard University School of Divinity, Washington, DC, and President of Shaw University, Raleigh, NC. He serves on the NC State Ethics Commission and has been recognized by the US Senate as one of the nation's most outstanding religious leaders. Newsome is the recipient of B.A (T '72)., M.Div. ('75), and Ph.D. (G '82) degrees from Duke. He was the first African American in North Carolina to attend Duke on an athletic scholarship, Duke's first African American student commencement speaker, and the first African American undergraduate to earn the Duke's highest degree. He and Lynne (T '72, G '74) are the parents of Gina (M.D.), and Brittany, an award winning filmmaker and composer. They are the grandparents of Kendellyn (4) and Ava, in utero. We are grateful for the Peter Gomes Guest Preacher Fund which was established in 2002 to honor the Rev. Gomes' many years of preaching at Duke Chapel.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

ADULT FORUM—Next Sunday, March 20, Andrea Wilson, a Master of Public Policy and MBA candidate at Duke, will speak on “Human Trafficking: Worldwide Problem, Unique Context.” The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building of the Divinity School at 9:45 a.m.

SIMPLE LENTEN MEAL—Please join the members of the Congregation Fellowship Committee after church today for a simple Lenten soup potluck, which will include a variety of homemade soups, breads, and cheeses. All are welcome to gather downstairs in the Chapel lounge and kitchen immediately following the service.

LOCAL MISSIONS COLLECTION—The mission collection for March is for the benefit of the Achievement Academy of Durham. This organization is dedicated to helping students obtain their GED and prepare them for postsecondary education. The following is a list of things needed to help the students with school activities and other personal needs: Casio 260 calculators, Post-it notes, dry erase markers, index cards, 1” ring binders, pencils and pens, scissors, rulers, laundry soap, shampoo, deodorant, and hypoallergenic body soap. Please leave donations on the back pew of the Chapel through next Sunday. Thank you for your help.

DURHAM CROPWALK—Nexy Sunday is the annual Durham CROPWalk, beginning in front of the Chapel at 2:30 p.m. Join the walk in solidarity with the world's hungry. Walkers and financial sponsors are needed. To join our team or to contribute online, go to www.durhamcropwalk.org or contact the Rev. Puckett at bruce.puckett@duke.edu or at 684-3917.

THIS WEEK AT DUKE CHAPEL

MORNING PRAYER - Monday at 9:00 a.m. in the Memorial Chapel

COMMUNION AND HEALING - Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in the Memorial Chapel

CHORAL VESPER - Thursday at 5:15 p.m. in the Chancel

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need, but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS—The stations of the cross hanging in Duke Chapel this Lenten season were created by Haitian artist John Silvestri using recycled materials. The pieces are made from discarded steel oil drums by scrubbing off the paint, slitting them down the side, and hammering them flat. A chisel and wooden mallet are then used to cut out the design templates, and finally the pieces are textured with an ice pick or awl. These works of art allow us to see the suffering of our Lord through the lenses of our Haitian sisters and brothers.

ORGAN RECITAL NEXT WEEK—Next Sunday, March 20, at 5:00 p.m. University Organist Robert Parkins will present this season's final recital in Duke Chapel: "French Keyboard Music of Four Centuries." The program will feature the Brombaugh and Flentrop organs as well as the debut of our recently completed "Blue Devil" harpsichord. The recital is free and open to the public.

TOWARD A MORAL CONSENSUS AGAINST TORTURE—The Duke Divinity School and First Presbyterian Church in Durham are hosting an inter-faith conference on religious witnesses against torture, "Toward a Moral Consensus Against Torture: A Gathering of Students, Clergy, People of Conscience, and People of Faith," on Friday, March 25, from 3:30 p.m. through Saturday, March 26, at 3:30 p.m. at Duke Divinity School. The gathering is part of a national effort to develop a moral consensus against torture under any circumstances. The conference is sponsored by the Duke Human Rights Center, the North Carolina Council of Churches, and the National Religious Campaign Against Torture (NRCAT). It is open to the public. For more information or to register, visit www.divinity.duke.edu/moral-consensus-against-torture or contact Dr. Amy Laura Hall, alhall@div.duke.edu.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually inter-denominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

- † Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
- † For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
- † Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

- † Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
- † Activity Bags (for children 5 and under) and Liturgy Boxes (ages 5-8) are available at the rear of the Chapel to help children engage in worship. Please return after the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Bruce Puckett at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu
