Service of Worship

Second Sunday in Easter

April 11, 2010

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"The Incredulity of St. Thomas," by Caravaggio, 1602.

The gospel lesson on the second Sunday of Easter each year is the story of "Doubting Thomas," Jesus' disciple who refused to believe the other disciples' account of Jesus' resurrection without seeing it for himself. The placement of this story of incredulity immediately following the joy of Easter acknowledges the complexity of belief. The Easter season, with its emphasis on new beginnings and new life, is traditionally a time for baptism. Today we welcome three new people into the Church through the sacrament of baptism.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

PRAYER OVER THE WATER AND PROFESSION OF FAITH

The minister blesses the waters of baptism.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life, the one for whom we exist?

I believe and trust in God the Father.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us, and rose again?

I believe and trust in God the Son.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God, and makes Christ known in the world?

I believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit.

This is the faith of the Church.

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The lilies adorning the chancel today are provided by the Hanks Family Chapel Fund, established through the generosity of the late Miss Nancy Hanks, former Duke University Trustee, and her mother, the late Mrs. Virginia Hanks.

TODAY'S MISSION OF THE MONTH OFFERING— Today's offering aims to support two students for the coming year at Renk Theological College. This Episcopal seminary is one of only five in the whole of Sudan, seeking to train preachers, teachers, pastors, and administrators—who also often function as community agriculturalists and even medics—for a thriving church of well over 4 million. The need is urgent, to strengthen the leadership of the country's most far-reaching institution and for the sake of building a stable peace following fifty years of war and persecution. Tuition, food, and accommodation costs $3000 per person per year.

LABYRINTH—On Tuesday, April 13, visitors are invited to walk the Labyrinth in Duke Chapel, from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The Labyrinth, a forty-foot circle containing a winding path, is an ancient spiritual tradition in many faiths.
