Service of Worship

Palm Sunday

April 17, 2011

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"The Entry into Jerusalem," by the Limbourg Brothers, before 1416.

Our service begins with a procession of the palms to recall the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. The palms we wave reflect the fragility of the celebration—since a mere five days later, the crowd's adulation turns to hatred. In Philippians, we read Paul's account of Jesus' ministry. Paul sums up the humiliation and the glory of Jesus that we prepare to honor this week. The gospel narrative is a retelling of the passion of Christ, drawing primarily from the gospel of Matthew.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will also be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.
