Service of Worship

Second Sunday of Easter
May 1, 2011
Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"The Incredulity of St. Thomas," by Caravaggio, 1602.

The gospel lesson on the second Sunday of Easter each year is the story of "Doubting Thomas," Jesus' disciple who refused to believe the other disciples' account of Jesus' resurrection without seeing it for himself. The placement of this story of incredulity immediately following the joy of Easter acknowledges the complexity of belief. The Easter season, with its emphasis on new beginnings and new life, is traditionally a time for baptism. Today we welcome a baby boy into the Church through the sacrament of baptism, and fifteen people will be joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

Church. Amen.

THE DECISION

PRAYER OVER THE WATER AND PROFESSION OF FAITH

The minister blesses the waters of baptism.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life, the one for whom we exist?

I believe and trust in God the Father.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us, and rose again?

I believe and trust in God the Son.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God, and makes Christ known in the world?

I believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith. We believe and trust in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for the Nicholas School of the Environment. We celebrate the ways faculty, staff, and students seek to understand, care for, and preserve creation. We are grateful for their training in the areas of both science and policy, which empowers leaders in a variety of fields to safeguard the fabric of the created order. Ushers bring a small globe to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who volunteer within the community and those who seek to build relationships across boundaries. The ushers bring forward a photo of a recent Congregation service project.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The lilies adorning the chancel today are provided by the Hanks Family Chapel Fund, established through the generosity of the late Miss Nancy Hanks, former Duke University Trustee, and her mother, the late Mrs. Virginia Hanks.

TODAY'S MISSION OF THE MONTH OFFERING—Genesis Home works to end homelessness for families with children by providing housing and supportive services to foster independence. Genesis Home believes that stable and secure housing helps families regain self-confidence and control. Their newest program moves its services beyond the shelter walls and into the larger Durham community. Genesis Home's case managers help the residents enroll in public assistance programs, assist with finding employment and educational opportunities, and teach them to use their income to pay down any debt that may prevent them from finding permanent housing. Additionally, Genesis Home's staff, volunteers, and partner agencies provide training and counseling on issues such as anger management, overcoming addiction, domestic violence and abuse, encouraging appropriate familial relationships, and parenting. Please give generously.

TODAY'S CHOIR—The Duke Choral Vespers Ensemble is a select group of singers who specialize in Renaissance and 20th-century motets. The choir is conducted by Dr. Allan Friedman. During the academic year, the Vespers Ensemble sings each Thursday at 5:15 p.m. in the chancel. The weekly services will resume on September 1, 2011.

KATIE BENJAMIN—Today marks the last Sunday for Katie Benjamin, the Chapel's Divinity School worship intern. Katie has assisted with the Chapel's weekly services with a great deal of care and attention. She is graduating from the Divinity School, but will continue her studies at Duke as she pursues a Th.D. in historical theology during the age of the Reformation.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE DEAN FOR ADMINISTRATION AND COMMUNICATIONS—The Chapel is looking for a new staff member to replace Dave Allen, who will be leaving in June to take a pastoral appointment in the United Methodist Church. The role of special assistant to the Dean requires a bachelor's degree, plus significant related administrative and/or communications background. A theological degree and pastoral experience are highly desirable. Please send a resume and letter of interest to lucy.worth@duke.edu by May 11.

CONCERT BY THE CHORAL SOCIETY OF DURHAM—On Saturday, May 7, at 8:00 p.m., the Choral Society will celebrate the season of spring with a performance of Haydn's Creation Mass and Carl Nielsen's Springtime on Funen, with vocal soloists, professional orchestra, and the Durham Children's Choir (Scott Hill, director).
