"The Road to Emmaus," by He Qi, www.heqigallery.com

Today we are in the third week of Eastertide, a season of celebration, formation, and calling people to ministry in the name of the Risen Lord. In the lesson from Acts, Peter calls upon all of Jerusalem to repent and reorient their lives around Jesus, and 3000 people believed and were baptized. The gospel lesson is the story of the risen Jesus meeting two forlorn disciples on the road to Emmaus, and being made known to them in the breaking of the bread. In these sacraments, Christ is made known, and lives are transformed.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

As part of Duke's Appreciation Week, this morning we give thanks for all Duke employees whose hard work and dedication contribute to the vibrancy and flourishing of the University. We specifically remember all those employed in service roles—housekeepers, groundskeepers, maintenance workers, food service employees, and all those occupations that are often overlooked. One of the Chapel's housekeepers, Oscar Dantzler, brings a uniform shirt to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who facilitate our buying goods that have been fairly traded. The ushers bring forward a hand-made basket from One World Market.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting A, on page 17 of the hymnal)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

AN IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT MAY 15

Sunday, May 15, is the occasion of Duke's 2011 Commencement ceremony. Duke Chapel will not be holding worship services that morning. The Congregation at Duke Chapel will be joining with Antioch Baptist Church in Durham for their 10:00 a.m. worship service, and the whole Duke Chapel community is invited to join them. Antioch is located at 1415 Holloway Street.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for today's worship service are given in memory of Senator Terry Sanford, former governor of North Carolina and former president of Duke University, with support from the Terry Sanford Chapel Flowers Fund.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All cash and undesignated checks will be sent to the Northern Alabama Conference of the United Methodist Church for tornado relief. Bishop Will Willimon writes, "We have lost over a dozen of our churches, a number of parsonages, the homes of many of our people, and worst of all, the lives of many sisters and brothers. We are heartbroken..... By God's grace, we believe we shall look back on the next weeks as a time when -- even amid our tragedy -- we experienced the presence and power of the Risen Christ. Our loss is huge, but we may find that the gifts of God are greater even than our loss. Still, Light shines." Please give generously.

TODAY'S CHOIR—The Pinecrest Chamber Ensemble and Sottero Voce are two of the three ensembles that make up the choral program at Pinecrest High School in Southern Pines, NC. The Chamber Ensemble is a mixed-voice ensemble consisting of 40 students in grades ten through twelve, and Sottero Voce is a women's ensemble consisting of 35 students in grades nine through twelve. Both ensembles maintain active performance schedules throughout the year, and strive to provide exceptional musical experiences for both the school and the surrounding community.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE DEAN FOR ADMINISTRATION AND COMMUNICATIONS—The Chapel is looking for a new staff member to replace Dave Allen, who will be leaving in June to take a pastoral appointment in the United Methodist Church. The role of special assistant to the Dean requires a bachelor's degree, plus significant related administrative and/or communications background. A theological degree and pastoral experience are highly desirable. Please send a resume and letter of interest to lucy.worth@duke.edu by May 11.

UPDATE ON BROADCASTS—Due to tornado damage to a radio tower in Raleigh, the Chapel's Sunday morning worship service will be broadcast one week later at 10 a.m. on AM WPTF 680 through June. Live radio broadcasts will continue on AM 620 WDNC. The broadcasts are funded by the Friends of Duke Chapel. The Sunday worship service is also available on the web via streaming video at www.chapel.duke.edu. The service is broadcast live on patient TV channel 50 in Duke Hospital.

Bruce Puckett at bruce.puckett@duke.edu or at 684-3917.

WHY DO WE PROCESS INTO THE SANCTUARY?

Throughout the Bible there is a tension between God's people as a settled people, enjoying land, king and temple and God's people as a pilgrim nation, experiencing exodus, wilderness, and exile. Jesus comes to a people who are in internal exile under the Romans; he encourages them to leave aside everything and to follow him. Yet we often forget we are a pilgrim people. And so in every act of worship we have a procession in order to embody what it means to live the life of faith as a journey. The two most significant forms of companionship are to share a meal and to share a journey. Worship begins with one and ends with the other. Just as the Road to Emmaus was, in Luke, the first encounter with the risen Christ, so today breaking bread together helps us identify the God we meet on the journey.
