"The Stoning of Stephen," by Edouard Léon Louis Edy-LeGrand, c. 1950.

The scripture passages in the season of Easter invite us to reflect on the what it means to be a community of the resurrection. Today's passage from Acts recounts the stoning of Stephen, a reminder that discipleship may involve persecution. 1 Peter also uses the imagery of stones, but not stones of death—these are living stones, ready to be built on a spiritual house and to "proclaim the mighty acts" of God. In the gospel lesson from John, Jesus refers to his father's house and its many dwelling places, and that by following him his disciples might come to know God.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for administrative professionals at Duke and the many ways their support and organization contributes to the success of both individuals and departments. The ushers bring a phone handset to the altar.

In Durham, we remember children and families of those who are incarcerated. The ushers bring a children's bedtime story to the altar.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

WHY DO WE CONFESS OUR SINS?

Sin is not simply something that makes people unhappy or causes pain: it is life based on a false story, one that leads to worshiping something other than the God of Jesus Christ. However, the Christian story does not begin with sin but with God's decision to be in relationship with humanity and all creation. Thus when there is a breakdown of that relationship, by what has been done, or what has been left undone, it is a tragedy in which the congregation has participated. Repentance means naming and stripping away the things that distance the disciple from the gospel. From personal repentance the congregation moves into corporate confession. It is not just their own sin that is separating them from God: sin infects the people of God as a whole. In confessing sin, we recognize that this congregation has joined, even in the last week, in the catastrophe of discarding God's everlasting invitation to worship and friendship.
