UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

June 27, 2010

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"Elijah Being Carried off to Heaven," by Marc Chagall, 1956.

The God we encounter in the Bible is one who seeks our transformation. In 2 Kings, Elisha has a firm desire to follow Elijah, and after Elijah is carried away by a whirlwind and a chariot of fire, Elisha cries out in grief and questions God. He then submits himself to Elijah's God and carries on Elijah's mantle for the people of Israel. In Luke 9, Jesus makes clear that discipleship is a radical act. Even as he invites people to follow him, he notes the cost of the decision, telling people that they cannot cling to their former lives and serve God's kingdom.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

My Soul's Been Anchored

Spiritual
arr. Moses Hogan
(1957-2003)

In the Lord, my soul's been anchored in the Lord! Lord, Hallelujah!

Before I'd stay in hell one day,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord.
I'd sing an' pray myself away,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord.

Goin' shout an' pray an' never stop,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord.
Until I reach the mountain top,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord.

Do you love him? Oh yes!
Hallelujah! God Almighty!
Are you anchored? Oh yes!
Yes, I'm anchored, my soul's been anchored in the Lord!

Will you serve him? Will you praise him?

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation (DYA) for its work in guiding young people in the rituals and practices of Christian faith so that they may better understand how to live out their Christian commitments in the world. Representatives from DYA bring a baptismal basin, a chalice, and a paten to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those who contribute joy to our community culture through their artistic and creative expressions. The ushers bring forward a piece of hand-thrown pottery.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical setting B, found on page 18 in the hymnal.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK -

WHY DO WE READ THE GOSPEL FROM THE CENTER AISLE?

This was the practice of the Western Church in ancient times, from at least the fourth century onward. The gospel has a special status because in it are recorded the very words of Jesus himself. Placing its reading at the center of our worship reflects this authority—it makes it clear the gospel stands at the very center of the Chapel's faith and life. Like the opening procession and closing recession, the gospel procession displays the pilgrim character of the church. We invite the congregation to turn to face the gospel, as an embodiment of the repentance the gospel asks of us. Duke Chapel has an interdenominational foundation: this is one way we draw on all the riches of the Church's liturgical heritage to enhance our encounter with the living God.

HAITI CLINIC UPDATE

The Congregation and the Chapel are raising funds to build a guest house for volunteer workers and medical providers on top of the Family Health Ministries Clinic in Leogane, Haiti, in honor of the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark, before her upcoming departure on August 15th. Since the campaign began we have received $42,310 towards our $80,000 goal. If you would like to give, please write a check to “Duke University Chapel” with “Haiti Clinic” in the memo line. You may also pledge or give via credit card at online at: www.gifts.duke.edu/chapel. Put “Haiti Clinic” in the field marked “Designation Comments” and check the box next to “Chapel Development Fund.” The fundraising effort is co-chaired by John Boswell and Lucy Worth. Others on the working group are the Rev. Bruce Puckett and David Langford. Any may be contacted for further information.
