In the scripture lesson for today, Paul urges spiritual maturity to the community at Colossae—a faith that is deeply rooted in the fullness and authority of Christ. In Luke, Jesus encourages his disciples to approach God with intimacy using the language of Father, in what we have come to call “The Lord’s Prayer.” The God of Israel waits with longing and expectation, desiring to give abundantly to those who knock at the door.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

Lord God, your Son left the riches of heaven that we learn more how to trust in you alone; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Center for Instructional Technology (CIT). We value its support of the academic mission of the University by helping instructors find innovative ways to use technology to achieve their teaching goals. Drawing on expertise in both technology and pedagogy, CIT seeks to enliven the learning experience through technology. The ushers bring an iPod to the altar.

In Durham we remember the Durham Police Department and its mission to partner with citizens in safeguarding the community, especially through the efforts of Partners Against Crime in each district. The ushers bring forward a map of the five police districts in the city of Durham.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

CHAPEL STAFF COMINGS AND GOINGS

DEPARTURES

Emily Wilson-Hauger has been working as the Staff Assistant to the Deans and the Faith Council Coordinator for the last three years. She and her husband, Matt, a recent graduate of the Divinity School, are moving to Boston at the end of this month where Emily will begin work on her dual M.A. in Sustainable International Development and Coexistence and Conflict at Brandeis University.

Becky Smith is moving on to other educational and employment horizons after nearly eight years of faithful service to Duke Chapel and the Lilly Endowment, Inc. Becky has been the one consistent staff person for PathWays since its inception as the Church and Society Servant Leader Initiative in 2002.

NEW ARRIVALS

The new Administrative Assistant to the Dean is Dave Allen. Dave has a long history at Duke. He is a 2004 Duke graduate in Public Policy and a 2010 graduate of the Divinity School. He was also the student preacher in 2003. He was a member of Wesley Fellowship as an undergraduate and later served there as a Divinity intern. He also spent a year interning with the Congregation. Between his degrees he worked in development for three years for Sojourners, a Christian nonprofit in Washington D.C. He hopes to become a deacon in the United Methodist Church in due course. He is getting married to his fiancée, Heather, this October.

The new Staff Assistant for Student Ministry is Gerly Ace. Gerly comes to the Chapel from Duke's Trinity College, where she has been working with several deans. She is a native of the Philippines and relocated to Durham three years ago. Gerly will be supporting Associate Dean Christy Lohr Sapp, Director of PathWays, Keith Daniel, as well as the Chapel's interfaith outreach, interaction with Religious Life staff, and the Chapel's PathWays program.

We also have a new Staff Assistant for Chapel Music, since Meredith Hawley became the Chapel Events and Wedding Coordinator: Michael Lyle, who joined the Chapel staff this week. After receiving a Masters degree in conduction from UTEP in 2007, Mike worked first as Executive Director of Arts and Letters Community Center in Chapel Hill (and its resident bookstore, Market Street Books) and then as a staff member at the Electric Violin Shop in Durham.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
