"The Miracle of the Bread," by Edouard Léon Louis Edy-LeGrand, 1950

The lesson from 2 Samuel shows the power of sin to entangle and distort. David first gives in to temptation with Bathsheba, but continues to cover up his mistakes by hatching an even more sinister plan to put Bathsheba's husband on the front line of combat. The shepherd king is ensnared by his sin, and draws others into it. In the letter to the church in Ephesus, Paul prays that the church may know both the scope of God's love and power over creation as well as the intimate care and attention to the details of our lives. The gospel lesson in John reveals such attention with the miracle of the feeding of the 5000. Jesus sets his heart not just on spiritual well-being, but physical wellbeing as well.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will also be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

CHAPEL STAFF ANNOUNCEMENT

After six years as the Associate Dean and Director of Religious Life for Duke Chapel, the Rev. Craig Kocher will be leaving Duke to take the position of University Chaplain and Chair of the Chaplaincy at the University of Richmond. He will oversee all religious and spiritual life on campus, manage a chaplaincy staff of seven, work with thirteen campus ministers, lead worship in the campus chapel, and serve as a senior officer of the University. While we are thrilled for Dean Kocher and this new opportunity, it is undoubtedly a big loss for the Chapel family. Craig served in the capacity of Acting Dean of the Chapel for the interim year between Bishop Willimon and Dean Sam Wells, and he has been a beloved pastor, colleague, and friend to students and the Duke community more broadly. Dean Kocher's last regular Sunday at Duke will be August 9. He will return a final time on September 13 so the Chapel community may offer a proper farewell. The Rev. Abby Kocher, the Chapel's community minister and Craig's wife, plans to continue her work at Duke Chapel through the fall semester and will be seeking ministry opportunities in the Richmond area in the spring.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach family trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. Duke's desire that the building exert a profound influence on the lives of the young women and men who attend the university.

SUMMER CHOIR—Next week is the last week to participate in the Summer Choir. The rehearsal will be on Sunday at 9:15 a.m. The choir is under the direction of Dr. Allan Friedman. Call 684-3898 for details.

NEW COMMUNITY HOUSE—Duke University Chapel is offering an opportunity to join in a new endeavor of shared residential life at 2003 Chapel Hill Road in Durham. By residing together in one of Durham's poorer neighborhoods, participants will experience the opportunity to live in relationship as Christian companions to one another and with neighbors in Durham's greater West End. Those interested in exploring living in Christian community should contact the Rev. Abby Kocher at abby.kocher@duke.edu.

PARKING AT DUKE CHAPEL—Do you like to attend Chapel events on evenings and weekends but do not like the trouble and cost of parking on campus? Duke Parking and Transportation services offers a night permit for $16 annually which allows you to park on campus after 5:00 p.m. on weekdays and anytime on the weekends. The permit is renewed annually in August. Please contact Parking at 684-PARK for more information.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

JOIN OUR REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT TEAM—As we look forward to the arrival of three Montagnard families from Vietnam in the coming weeks, we are organizing a team of committed volunteers to offer friendship and to help them adjust to life in this country. Volunteers are needed to assist with school registration, driving to medical/dental appointments, securing employment, working with Durham Social Services, and a variety of other ways. We still need some selected household furnishings, as well as cooking and kitchen utensils. Bulky items will be picked up. For further information, contact Steve Harper at 696-8879 or email jsh1805@yahoo.com.

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY NETWORK—During the week of August 9-16, the Congregation will join with Antioch Baptist Church to co-host homeless guests from Interfaith Hospitality Network. This means that cots for up to three families will be set up in the education building at Antioch where they will sleep and enjoy evening activities as well as share breakfast and dinner. During the day, the families will be transported to the IHN day house. Approximately 30 Congregation volunteers are needed to assist with tasks such as providing meals, offering transportation, and serving as overnight chaperones. We are excited about working alongside volunteers from Antioch. If you are free to help or have questions, please contact Marilyn Christian at mchristian2@nc.rr.com or call 361-1974.

SCHOOL SUPPLY COLLECTION—The Local Missions and Outreach Committee will be collecting school supplies and backpacks for distribution to local Durham students in need. Items needed include, but are not limited to: backpacks, paper, pens, pencils, notebooks, binders, pocket folders, pencil boxes, erasers, rulers, markers, crayons, glue, and construction paper. Donated supplies may be dropped off in the back pew in the Chapel on Sunday August 9 through August 16. Monetary donations will be accepted as well.

FELLOWSHIP WITH ANTIOCH BAPTIST—Members of Antioch Baptist have invited Congregation members and friends to join them for two special events in August. On Wednesday, August 12, there will be a potluck dinner and Family Night celebration including music, starting at 6:00 p.m. On Saturday, August 15, all are invited to a cookout of hamburgers, hot dogs, and fish from 4:00-8:00 p.m. Both events will be held at Antioch Baptist, 1415 Holloway Street, Durham. RSVPs are encouraged but not required for the cookout. Please contact office@congregation.chapel.duke.edu if you can attend.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY—Godly Play classes will resume next Sunday, August 2, at 9:45 a.m. Children entering third grade or younger will meet in the crypt. Those in the fourth and fifth grades will be meeting in a new location which is the York Reading Room on the second floor of Duke Divinity School. For more information, please contact Elizabeth Clift at eac17@duke.edu.
