Scripture speaks to the simultaneously fierce and compassionate love of God. In Hosea, God's tenderness toward his people is profound—this God is not one who left creation to spin on its own, but he actively loves his people and yearns for them, even in the face of human fickleness. In Colossians, Paul urges that God's people to set their eyes on Christ and to put aside those things that deform and distort the gospel. The passage in Luke speaks to the insidious nature of greed and the ways our possessions often come to possess us and prevent us from encountering the true abundance found only in Christ.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
