Service of Worship

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

August 2, 2009

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"The Quails," by Hermine Shafer, c. 1950s.

The scripture lessons for today emphasize God's provision for God's people. The Israelites were suffering in the desert and complained to Moses about their dire situation. Moses encouraged them to draw near to God, and God sent quails at night and manna in the morning so that all would be fed. In John's gospel, Jesus acknowledges the ways that God provides physical nourishment by referencing the miracle of the manna in the desert in connection to his feeding of the 5000. But Jesus is clear that his nourishment is not only about satisfying not only physical hunger, but also spiritual hunger as well. The bread of heaven is food for body and spirit.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

so that we may trust in you alone;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

O For a Heart to Praise My God

David Arcus
(b. 1959)

O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free,
A heart that always feels Thy blood
So freely shed for me.

A humble, lowly, contrite, heart,
Believing, true and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From Christ who dwells within.

Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write Thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of Love.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the John Hope Franklin Center. We celebrate its dedication to interdisciplinary study that revitalizes notions of how knowledge is gained and exchanged, specifically its attention to race and race relations, the legacy of the African-American experience, equality and opportunity among diverse populations, and the implications of accelerated globalization. The ushers bring John Hope Franklin's autobiography Mirror to America to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those who care for others at the end of life. The ushers bring forward a photo of a caregiver by the bedside of a loved one.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting B, on page 18 of the hymnal. The leader will sing each phrase of the responses, and the congregation repeats.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

CHAPEL STAFF ANNOUNCEMENT

After six years as the Associate Dean and Director of Religious Life for Duke Chapel, the Rev. Craig Kocher will be leaving Duke to take the position of University Chaplain and Chair of the Chaplaincy at the University of Richmond. He will oversee all religious and spiritual life on campus, manage a chaplaincy staff of seven, work with thirteen campus ministers, lead worship in the campus chapel, and serve as a senior officer of the University. While we are thrilled for Dean Kocher and this new opportunity, it is undoubtedly a big loss for the Chapel family. Craig served in the capacity of Acting Dean of the Chapel for the interim year between Bishop Willimon and Dean Sam Wells, and he has been a beloved pastor, colleague, and friend to students and the Duke community more broadly. Dean Kocher's last regular Sunday at Duke will be August 9. He will return a final time on September 13 so the Chapel community may offer a proper farewell. The Rev. Abby Kocher, the Chapel's community minister and Craig's wife, plans to continue her work at Duke Chapel through the fall semester and will be seeking ministry opportunities in the Richmond area in the spring.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach family trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for an emergency fund for disaster and recovery support for communities in our world that are affected by unexpected and sudden disaster (natural or otherwise). Your generosity enables the Chapel to respond quickly with financial support in times of acute crisis.

SUMMER CHOIR—Today is the last Sunday for the Summer choir to assist in leading worship. Thanks to Dr. Allan Friedman and all who have sung in the choir this summer. If you are interested in singing in the Chapel choir during the academic year, please call 684-3898 for details.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT—Duke Chapel has an email list for those interested in building friendships across boundaries and engaging with the West End and greater Durham community. Opportunities are emailed from Duke Chapel's Director of University and Community Relations Gaston Warner and Community Minister Abby Kocher. To subscribe to the list, contact Gaston Warner at g.warner@duke.edu.

DUKE CHAPEL EVENTS LISTSERV—If you would like to receive emails about upcoming events sponsored by Duke Chapel, such as concerts, talks, special worship services, and more, please visit www.chapel.duke.edu/calendar, or send an email to Mandie Sellars at mandie.sellars@duke.edu.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

SCHOOL SUPPLY COLLECTION—The Local Missions and Outreach Committee will be collecting school supplies and backpacks for distribution to local Durham students in need. Items needed include, but are not limited to: backpacks, paper, pens, pencils, notebooks, binders, pocket folders, pencil boxes, erasers, rulers, markers, crayons, glue, and construction paper. Donated supplies may be dropped off in the back pew in the Chapel on Sunday August 9 through August 16. Monetary donations will be accepted as well.

FELLOWSHIP WITH ANTIOCH BAPTIST—Members of Antioch Baptist have invited Congregation members and friends to join them for two special events in August. On Wednesday, August 12, there will be a potluck dinner and Family Night celebration including music, starting at 6:00 p.m. On Saturday, August 15, all are invited to a cookout of hamburgers, hot dogs, and fish from 4:00-8:00 p.m. Both events will be held at Antioch Baptist, 1415 Holloway Street, Durham. RSVPs are encouraged but not required for the cookout. Please contact office@congregation.chapel.duke.edu if you can attend.

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY NETWORK—During the week of August 9-16, the Congregation will join with Antioch Baptist Church to co-host homeless guests from Interfaith Hospitality Network. This means that cots for up to three families will be set up in the education building at Antioch where they will sleep and enjoy evening activities as well as share breakfast and dinner. During the day, the families will be transported to the IHN day house. Approximately 30 Congregation volunteers are needed to assist with tasks such as providing meals, offering transportation, and serving as overnight chaperones. We are excited about working alongside volunteers from Antioch. If you are free to help or have questions, please contact Marilyn Christian at mchristian2@nc.rr.com or call 361-1974.

JOIN OUR REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT TEAM—As we look forward to the arrival of three Montagnard families from Vietnam in the coming weeks, we are organizing a team of committed volunteers to offer friendship and to help them adjust to life in this country. Volunteers are needed to assist with school registration, driving to medical/dental appointments, securing employment, working with Durham Social Services, and a variety of other ways. We still need some selected household furnishings, as well as cooking and kitchen utensils. Bulky items will be picked up. For further information, contact Steve Harper at 696-8879 or email jsh1805@yahoo.com.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY—Godly Play meets each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. Children entering third grade or younger will meet in the crypt. Those in the fourth and fifth grades will be meeting in a new location, which is the York Reading Room on the second floor of Duke Divinity School. For more information, please contact Elizabeth Clift at eac17@duke.edu.

We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
