

DUKE
UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost
August 8, 2010
Eleven o'clock in the morning

œ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God œ

As hard as it may be to define, the scripture lesson today from Hebrews speaks to a definition of faith: “the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.” The passage draws on the story of Abraham to reveal that such faith is not a step into the dark unknown, but a trusting in God’s light and promise. The gospel lesson from Luke also speaks to God’s provision by encouraging disciples to invest their lives in the things that matter: “Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven.” The lesson also carries with it an urgency to be prepared and ready for God’s coming presence. After 18 years at Duke Chapel, the Congregation’s pastor, Nancy Ferree-Clark, will be moving to Washington state in the coming weeks, and today is her last Sunday to preach here. Next Sunday will be her last Sunday in worship.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent
during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.*

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

The King of Love, My Shepherd Is

Traditional

The king of love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never,
I nothing lack if I am his
And he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And O what transport of delight
From thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good shepherd, may I sing thy praise
Within thy house forever.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for those who make up the staff of Religious Life at Duke. We celebrate their nurturing of students in ways of faith, reflection, and service. Ushers bring a copy of the Religious Life brochure to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up new parents and newborn children and the people who support them. The ushers bring forward a baby blanket.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical setting A, found on page 17 in the hymnal.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

At the River

Traditional Spiritual
arr. Aaron Copland
(1900-1990)

Shall we gather by the river,
Where bright angel feet have trod,
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing by the throne of God?

*Yes, we'll gather by the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river;
Gather with the saints at the river
That flows by the throne of God.*

Soon we'll reach the shining river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease;
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace.
