Service of Worship

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

August 19, 2007

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

Duke Chapel's baptismal font

Today's scripture lessons reveal God's anger over the waywardness of the people of God. Isaiah describes the relationship of God to Israel by using the image of a vineyard—the owner lovingly nurtured and labored over the vineyard, only to have the land yield wild grapes. God hoped for his people to bear fruit, but the fruit is rotten. The parable is followed by images of destruction and loss of protection as a result of God's grief. The lesson in Luke is also replete with images of strife and division. Jesus expects complete allegiance, and he speaks to the cost of such discipleship while also redefining the contours of family. For Christians, baptism is the new mark of family.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

HYMN 632

UNION SEMINARY

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Simple Song (from Mass)

Leonard Bernstein
(1918-1990)

Sing God a simple song: Lauda, Laude.
Make it up as you go along: Lauda, Laude.
Sing like you like to sing.
God loves all simple things, For God is the simplest of all.
I will sing the Lord a new song to praise Him,
to bless Him, to bless the Lord.
I will sing His praises while I live, all of my days.
Blessed is the man who loves the Lord, who praises Him,
Lauda, Laude, and walks in His ways.
I will lift up my eyes to the hills from whence comes my help.
I will lift up my voice to the Lord singing, Lauda, Laude.
For the Lord is the shade upon my right hand, and the sun shall not smite me by day, nor the moon by night.
