

DUKE
UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Opening Sunday

August 30, 2009

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

The mission of Duke Chapel is to keep the heart of the University listening to the heart of God. On Opening Sunday, it has been the recent custom of the Dean of the Chapel to offer a “Heart of the University” sermon, continuing to inquire where this university’s heart lies, and what it might mean for that heart to listen to the heart of God. In recent years, he has spoken about medicine and the Duke hospitals as well as the role of athletics. Today he will speak on the role of research.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will also be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

INTROIT

For the Life That You Have Given

David Arcus
(b. 1959)

For the life that you have given, for the love in Christ made known,
With these fruits of love and labor, with these gifts that are your own:
Here we offer, Lord, our praises: heart and mind and strength we bring.
Give us grace to love and serve you, living what we pray and sing.

—Carl P. Daw Jr.

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Praise the Source of Faith and Learning

HYMN TO JOY

Praise the source of faith and learning who has sparked and stoked the mind
With a passion for discerning how the world has been designed.
Let the sense of wonder flowing from the wonders we survey
Keep our faith forever growing and renew our need to pray:

God of wisdom, we acknowledge that our science and our art
And the breadth of human knowledge only partial truth impart.
Far beyond our calculation lies a depth we cannot sound
Where your purpose for creation and the pulse of life are found.

May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought
Has displaced the grounds for wonder which the ancient prophets thought;
May our learning curb the error which unthinking faith can breed
Lest we justify some terror with an antiquated creed.

As two currents in a river fight each other's undertow
Till converging they deliver one coherent steady flow,
May we blend our faith and learning till they carve a single course,
And our seeking and our yearning join in praising you their source:

Praise for minds to probe the heavens, praise for strength to breathe the air,
Praise for all that beauty leavens, praise for silence, music, prayer,
Praise for justice and compassion and for strangers, neighbors, friends,
Praise for hearts and lips to fashion, praise for love that never ends.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
The minister offers words of confession in three biddings, to which the congregation responds as follows:

Lord have mercy.
Lord have mercy.

Christ have mercy.
Christ have mercy.

Lord have mercy.
Lord have mercy.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE
(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

The heavens are not too high, his praise my thither fly:

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Upon This Rock

John Ness Beck
(1930-1987)

Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Lo, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds has come. Arise, and come away.
—Matthew 16:18; Song of Solomon 2:11-13

(Choir and Congregation standing)

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the word;
From heav'n he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Yet she on earth hath union with Father, Spirit, Son,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy! Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee

Amen.

—Samuel Stone

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK -

WHY DO WE READ THE GOSPEL FROM THE CENTER AISLE?

This was the practice of the Western Church in ancient times, from at least the fourth century onward. The gospel has a special status because in it are recorded the very words of Jesus himself. Placing its reading at the center of our worship reflects this authority—it makes it clear the gospel stands at the very center of the Chapel's faith and life. Like the opening procession and closing recession, the gospel procession displays the pilgrim character of the church. We invite the congregation to turn to face the gospel, as an embodiment of the repentance the gospel asks of us. Duke Chapel has an interdenominational foundation: this is one way we draw on all the riches of the Church's liturgical heritage to enhance encounter with the living God.

FEATURING CHAPEL HOUSEKEEPER OSCAR DANTZLER

In early 2009, two filmmakers chose Duke Chapel's beloved housekeeper Oscar Dantzler along with six other housekeepers from other universities to feature in their documentary, The Philosopher Kings. In June, the movie debuted at the SilverDocs Film Festival in Maryland, and now is being screened at the campuses where the featured custodians work and other film festivals. Director Patrick Shen and co-producer Greg Bennick visited Duke several times, following Oscar during his workday on campus, and even accompanied him on a fishing trip after work.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers are presented to the glory of God in honor of Bonnie McWilliams' twenty-fifth anniversary at Duke University Chapel and her retirement effective tomorrow. For twenty-five years, Bonnie has faithfully supported the work of the Friends of the Chapel, the Religious Life staff, and the Directors of Development and Administration. Her institutional memory and her relationships with hundreds of the Friends are irreplaceable. We have been blessed by her presence and her faithful service and are delighted that she will continue to work part time in her development role.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support Duke Chapel's engagement with the Durham community. Specifically, funds will support deepening relationships in the West End neighborhood as well as Dean Wells' Community Engagement series. These endeavors offer opportunities for those involved in the life of Duke Chapel to grow in faith together with downtown Durham neighborhoods and congregations. As Duke Chapel deepens its commitment to seek the welfare of the city of Durham, we hope these encounters will foster meaningful and transformational relationships in our community.
