

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

Opening Sunday

September 4, 2011

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"The Death of Chatterton," by Henry Wallis, 1856.

"The arts are vital to reaching the fullness of human experience and achieving a well-rounded education. They give intellectual and emotional texture to daily life and create community through the sharing of concerts, exhibitions, readings, and productions. The arts are, therefore, fundamental to Duke's teaching and research mission, providing historical and cultural insight, offering diverse perspectives on human behavior and concerns, and affording students opportunities to experience artistic creation and production."

—from Making a Difference: The Strategic Plan for Duke University (2006)

The mission of Duke Chapel is to keep the heart of the University listening to the heart of God. On Opening Sunday, it has been the custom of the Dean of the Chapel to offer a "Heart of the University" sermon, continuing to inquire where this university's heart lies, and what it might mean for that heart to listen to the heart of God. In recent years, he has spoken about medicine, science, athletics, and research. Today he will speak on the arts.

RESPONSE

BLESSING OF FRIENDSHIPS BETWEEN THE WEST END AND DUKE CHAPEL

The Rev. Daniel: As Chapel PathWays Fellows, all of you have made a year-long commitment to explore vocation through residential community in the West End. Together you have committed to a year of vocational exploration through engagement in nonprofit and ministry settings in Durham. Peter, Mark, and Jeanice, is this your understanding of the role to which you've been called?

PathWays Fellows: It is.

The Rev. Daniel: The Lord bless you with courage, faith, and mutual forbearance as you seek to know God and make him known.

People: Amen.

Dean Wells: At Duke Chapel, we celebrate those in the Durham community who long for reconciliation and social healing. Here today are many who care deeply about the West End and surrounding neighborhoods, and are allowing their lives to be gently transformed by new friendships. Today we renew our commitment to journey together. Do you believe God is at work in the West End?

People: We do.

Dean Wells: Loving God, give us grace to meet you in one another and teach us to walk in your footsteps, day by day.

People: Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY AND DOXOLOGY

Upon This Rock

John Ness Beck
(1930-1987)

Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Lo, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds has come. Arise, and come away.
—Matthew 16:18; Song of Solomon 2:11-13

(Choir and Congregation standing, at the direction of the conductor)

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the word;
From heav'n he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Yet she on earth hath union with Father, Spirit, Son,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and Holy! Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee.

Amen.

—Samuel Stone

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Duke Dance program—for the ways it trains students in artistic expression and communication incorporating mind, body, and spirit, and for the ways that dance, rhythm, and movement help us to understand and celebrate life. The ushers bring a pair of ballet shoes to the altar.

In Durham we lift up all those who live in the West End. The ushers bring forward a map of the greater West End neighborhoods.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether

Harold Friedell
(1905-1958)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether; for when humbly, in thy name, two or three are met together, thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Touch we now thy garment's hem.

As the brethren used to gather in the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup:
Alleluia! Alleluia! So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be.
Alleluia! Alleluia! We will serve thee faithfully.

SENDING FORTH

*BENEDICTION

*RECESSIONAL HYMN

Praise the Source of Faith and Learning

HYMN TO JOY

Praise the source of faith and learning who has sparked and stoked the mind
With a passion for discerning how the world has been designed.
Let the sense of wonder flowing from the wonders we survey
Keep our faith forever growing and renew our need to pray:

God of wisdom, we acknowledge that our science and our art
And the breadth of human knowledge only partial truth impart.
Far beyond our calculation lies a depth we cannot sound
Where your purpose for creation and the pulse of life are found.

May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought
Has displaced the grounds for wonder which the ancient prophets thought;
May our learning curb the error which unthinking faith can breed
Lest we justify some terror with an antiquated creed.

As two currents in a river fight each other's undertow
Till converging they deliver one coherent steady flow,
May we blend our faith and learning till they carve a single course,
And our seeking and our yearning join in praising you their source:

Praise for minds to probe the heavens, praise for strength to breathe the air,
Praise for all that beauty leavens, praise for silence, music, prayer,
Praise for justice and compassion and for strangers, neighbors, friends,
Praise for hearts and lips to fashion, praise for love that never ends.

*CHORAL BLESSING

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for this morning are given to the glory of God in celebration of the new academic year by the Nan and Taylor Cole Chapel Endowment.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. Duke's desire that the building exert a profound influence on the lives of the young women and men who attend the university.

TODAY'S OPENING HYMN—This morning's opening hymn text was written by Brian Wren and commissioned by Duke University Chapel on the occasion of its 75th anniversary in 2010. The new hymn refrains from mentioning Duke Chapel by name (thus allowing it to be relevant to any place of worship), but the words skillfully address the unique challenges of a grand, inspiring church in the midst of a major, secular research university and in a community with a rich and complex history. The University's motto, Eruditio et Religio, resounds in the beginning of stanzas one and three, while the latter stanza also resonates with the Chapel's own mission of "keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God."

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Copies of today's sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just inside the front doors of the Chapel. Downloadable PDFs, podcasts, and webcasts of the weekly sermons are available on the Chapel's website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

Contact: Meghan Feldmeyer at meghan.feldmeyer@duke.edu.

Contact: Christy Lohr Sapp at christy.lohr@duke.edu.

LIVING BEYOND YOURSELF: EXPLORING THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT—We will explore the freedom of a life filled with peace, joy, gentleness, and other positive characteristics (Gal. 5:22-23).
