

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 13, 2009

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

Detail of "What People Think about Me," by Vasily Polenov, 1900.

Today we welcome back as our preacher Craig Kocher, who was until August associate dean of the Chapel and director of religious life. He recently became Chaplain to the University of Richmond. The scripture lessons for this morning are all connected by a sense of proclamation. In Proverbs, wisdom is personified as one who stands in the streets proclaiming her wisdom to anyone who will listen. In the book of James, he warns against the power and danger that can be unleashed by the tongue. Mark's gospel describes Jesus and his disciples as they wrestle to understand who Jesus is. Peter identifies Jesus as the Messiah. Jesus then is clear that a life with him involves radical commitment—giving our whole lives to his service.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will also be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

INTROIT

Take Up Thy Cross	John Dowland (1563-1626)

Take up thy cross, the Saviour said, if thou wouldst my disciple be. Deny thyself, the world forsake, and humbly follow after me. Take up thy cross, let not its weight fill thy weak spirit with alarm; his strength shall bear thy spirit up, and brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame, nor let thy foolish pride rebel; thy Lord for thee the cross endured and fought the powers of death and hell. Take up thy cross and follow Christ, nor think till death to lay it down. For only he who bears the cross may hope to wear the glorious crown.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS— Today's flowers are given to the glory of God in honor of former Associate Dean and Director of Religious Life Craig Kocher. Craig served the Chapel with energy and love for six years before becoming University Chaplain of the University of Richmond on August 17.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need, but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.
