The scripture lessons this morning deal with grief and faith. In the lesson from Lamentations, the downfall of Jerusalem is mourned. The author laments the promise of the city and all that might have been. There is not yet consolation, only tears. In the gospel lesson from Luke, Jesus tells his followers that if their faith were even the size of a mustard seed, they could uproot and move a mulberry tree, which was notoriously deep-rooted. In this parable we discover that Christian discipleship is not about having great faith in God, but having faith in a great God.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
