UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

October 10, 2010

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"Naaman is restored to life in the Jordan river," by Caspar Luiken, 1712.

Today's Old Testament and Gospel lessons both tell stories about lepers. In 2 Kings, Israel's King Naaman suffers from leprosy but is made clean after he reluctantly follows Elisha's instruction to wash in the Jordan River seven times. In Luke, Jesus encounters ten lepers and heals all of them, but only one—the foreigner—returns to offer thanks to God for having been healed. In the passage from 2 Timothy, Paul reflects on his own suffering and encourages endurance in Christ—the one who is faithful, even when we are faithless.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

OFFERTORY

All Wisdom Cometh from the Lord

Philip Moore
(b. 1943)

All wisdom cometh from the Lord, and is with him forever. Who can number the sand of the sea and drops of rain, and the days of eternity? Who can find out the height of heaven, and the breadth of the earth, and the deep and wisdom? Wisdom hath been created before all things and the understanding of prudence from everlasting. The word of God most high is the fountain of wisdom, and her ways are everlasting commandments. To whom hath the root of wisdom been revealed? Or who hath known her wise counsels? There is one wise and greatly to be feared, the Lord sitting upon his throne. He created her, and saw her and numbered her, and poured her out upon all his works. She is with all flesh according to his gifts, and he hath given her to them that love him. The fear of the Lord is honor and glory and gladness, and a crown of rejoicing. The fear of the Lord maketh a merry heart, and bringeth joy and gladness and a long life. Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart. Make me to go in the way of thy commandments; for therein is my desire. O stablish thy word in thy servant; that I may fear thee. Behold, my delight is in thy commandments; O quicken me in thy righteousness.

—Sirach 1:1-6, 8-12 and Psalm 119:33-35, 38-40

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

TODAY'S OFFERING—Today's Mission of the Month offering will be given in its entirety to The Children's Environmental Health Initiative's (CEHI) Bringing Books to Children (BBC) program, which provides new books to low income children. Last year, BBC served each of the 642 children enrolled in the Durham and Orange County Headstart programs. This year, they seek to expand the program to include every child enrolled in the Durham, Orange, and Chatham County Headstart programs.

TODAY'S GUEST CHOIR—The Trinity Cathedral Choir of Columbia, SC, sings for over 200 services annually. They have toured England six times and have also sung at major churches throughout the United States, including Washington Cathedral and St. Thomas Church in New York.
