"Jesus heals the ten lepers" by Caspar Luiken, 1712

Today's Old Testament lesson and Gospel lesson both concern stories of lepers. In 2 Kings, Naaman, Israel's king, suffers from leprosy, but is made clean after he reluctantly follows Elisha's instruction to wash in the Jordan River seven times. In Luke, Jesus encounters ten lepers, and he heals all of them. Yet only one, the foreigner, returns to offer thanks to God for the transformation. In the passage from 2 Timothy, Paul reflects on his own suffering and encourages endurance in Christ—the one who is faithful, even when we are faithless.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

ANTHEM

Amazing Grace

arr. Alice Parker/Robert Shaw

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found, was blind, but now I see.
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear, the hour I first believed!
Through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come;
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.
The Lord has promised good to me, his word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FLOWERS—The flowers in the Chapel today are given to the glory of God in memory of Barbara Ann Freeman Erlenbach, Women's College '56, by her family and grandchildren.

TODAY'S OFFERING—October's Mission of the Month will fund a health fair for Durham's homeless population. Students from the Duke School of Nursing and Duke Health System nurses will staff the event which will provide education, direct care, and appropriate referrals to shelter residents and street dwellers. Because the healthcare needs of homeless people can be complex and urgent, the organizers anticipate the cost will be $6,000 to $7,000. This is more than a typical Sunday offering; thus, each of us will need to give generously as we share our financial and healthcare resources with our sisters and brothers in Christ. "Give your food to the hungry and care for the homeless. Then your light will shine in the dark; your darkest hour will be like the noonday sun." Isaiah 58:10

THANK YOU—Following last February's Mission of the Month offering, there are now two 'Duke Chapel' students at Renk Theological College in Sudan. Here is a letter from one of them after he received a copy of Duke Chapel Illuminated. Mark comes from the cattle-herding region of Bor, about 250 miles south of Renk. In June Mark and his wife suffered the sudden death of their daughter. Nevertheless he was determined not to miss the intensive summer classes taught by Duke Divinity School visitors, but because of the heavy rains the return journey took 21 days.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am greeting you in the name of our Lord Savior Jesus, for the spiritual gift you have given to me by sending your Chapel book as a sign of our fellowship. Through my life I will remember you as you remember me from far, but in spirit we meet and in God will we one day meet physically as I met Dr. Ellen Davis. You receive my gift from Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God." May God bless you.

Yours in Christ, Distance Duke Student Mark Diing Kuany

ORGAN RECITAL—John Walker will present the first organ recital in this season's series today at 5:00 p.m. His program on Duke Chapel's Flentrop organ will include works by Buxtehude, Sweelinck, Bach, and Messiaen, among others. Admission is free.

DEANS' DIALOGUE—This semester's Deans' Dialogues begin with a conversation between Chapel Dean Sam Wells and the new Fuqua School of Business Dean Blair Sheppard on Wednesday, October 17, at 5:15 p.m. in Geneen Auditorium at the Fuqua School of Business. The event is free and all are invited to attend.

DEAN WELLS AND GODLY PLAY—On Sunday, October 21, at 4:00 p.m., Dean Wells will lead the fourth in a series of community engagement talks using the methods of Godly Play. It will take place at Asbury Temple United Methodist Church, 201 S. Alston Avenue, Durham. People of all ages are welcome.
