Service of Worship

All Saints' Sunday

October 31, 2010

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"The Mystical Supper," icon by Simon Ushakov, 1685.

Today we celebrate All Saints Day, which is a time for the Church to remember all those saints, known and unknown, who have gone before us and have faithfully walked the Christian path. The mood of this service is one of celebration and joy for all those people who have borne fruit for the kingdom by their service to Christ. Today we welcome new members into the communion of saints through the sacrament of baptism.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

The minister blesses the waters of baptism.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life, the one for whom we exist?

I believe and trust in God the Father.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us, and rose again?

I believe and trust in God the Son.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God, and makes Christ known in the world?

OFFERTORY

Praise His Holy Name!

Keith Hampton
(b. 1975)

Sing till the power of the Lord come down.

Shout Hallelujah! Praise his holy name!

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see.

Jesus, Jesus, how I love thee!

Shout Hallelujah! Praise his holy name!

Must Jesus bear the cross alone and all the world go free?

No, there's a cross for everyone and there's a cross from me.

Holy Jesus, praise his name, Oh! Hallelujah! Praise his holy name!

Let us praise his name, Hallelujah, Lord! Praise his holy name!

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!

Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks in the University for the Duke School of Nursing. We celebrate its commitment to excellence in nursing sciences, clinical care and research, and its desire to touch lives and offer transforming care to those suffering from illness and disease. A representative brings a world map to the altar, to represent the School of Nursing's influence that has stretched to many countries and in service to many families throughout the globe.

In Durham, we give thanks for the saints who have shaped Durham by living lives that reveal God's kingdom locally. The ushers bring forward a history book of Durham.
