Christ the King Sunday

November 20, 2011

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

Christ the King sculpture, by Jean-Julien Bourgault, 1968.

Today we mark the feast of Christ the King. It is a day for expressing our faith that, even though Christ was rejected and crucified, he rose and ascended, and forever reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit in glory. This means that no mighty power, no tragic suffering, no evil force will have the last word; the last word is Jesus. It also means we may look to Jesus' life – his humility, his sacrifice, his compassion for outcasts – for a model of what true kingship is like. Our loyalty to this Christ goes before our loyalty to any other claim on our lives. Today is the last Sunday of the Church's year: next week a new year begins with the first Sunday in Advent.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

INTROIT

O Jesus, King Most Wonderful

Christopher Tye
(ca. 1497-1572)

O Jesus, King most wonderful,
Thou Conqueror renowned,
Thou Sweetness most ineffable,
In whom all joys are found!
May every heart confess thy name
And ever thee adore
And, seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more!
Thee may our tongues forever bless,
Thee may we love alone,
And ever in our lives express
The image of thine own.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 715

Rejoice, the Lord Is King

DARWALL'S 148TH

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

God the Father, help us to hear the call of Christ the King and to follow in his service, for he reigns forever with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, one glory. Amen.

MISSION ANNOUNCEMENT

OFFERTORY

The Old Hundredth Psalm Tune

Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

All people that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell, Come ye before him, and rejoice.
The Lord, ye know, is God indeed, Without our aid he did us make;
We are his folk, he doth us feed, And for his sheep he doth us take.
O enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless his name always, For it is seemly so to do.
For why? the Lord our God is good: His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood, And shall from age to age endure.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From us and from the angel host, Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Sanford School of Public Policy. We celebrate its dedication to creating public policy leaders for a changing world, and helping the University use knowledge in the service of society. A Sanford representative brings a photo of the school to the altar.

In Durham we lift up those who live with mental illness and the organizations and people who seek to walk with them. A representative brings a flower to the altar.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

arr. John Rutter
(b. 1945)

The King of love my Shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his and he is mine forever.
Where streams of living waters flow my ransomed soul he leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow with food celestial feedeth.
Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid, and home, rejoicing, brought me.
In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still, thy cross before to guide me.
Thou spread'st a table in my sight; thy unction grace bestoweth:

And O what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth.
And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house forever.

God Be in My Head

John Rutter
(b. 1945)

God be in my head and in my understanding. God be in mine eyes and in my looking. God be in my mouth and in my speaking. God be in my heart and in my thinking. God be at my end and in my departing.

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER

Today we are pleased to welcome the Rev. Bonnie Scott, associate pastor of Wesley Freedom United Methodist Church in Eldersburg, Maryland. She is a recent graduate of Duke Divinity School and recipient of the Jameson Jones preaching award and the David H.C. Reed Preacher/Scholar award. Rev. Scott is passionate about articulating the beauty of the gospel and the richness of Christian tradition to new generations. She enjoys Sabbath hiking in the woods, the hum of her sewing machine, and learning her grandfather's craft of woodworking.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—The flowers for this morning are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S MISSION OF THE MONTH OFFERING—The Mission of the Month for November is the Congregation's Youth and Family Mission Trip to Honduras. In July of 2012, twenty-four youth and parents from the Congregation will be traveling to Puerto Cortes, Honduras, to work with the Cocal Gracias Project, a ministry offering training in various trades to people with extreme material need. While in Honduras, the Congregation's youth and families will work with members of the Puerto Cortes community to build a home for a local pastor connected with Cocal Gracias. All of today's undesignated cash and checks made payable to Duke Chapel with "Honduras" in the memo line will go toward funding the project costs for this house. Our goal is to raise $10,000. Please give generously.

CHAPEL CHOIR—Today is the last Sunday for the Chapel Choir until the spring semester. If you are a student who is interested in joining the Chapel Choir next semester, please call 684-3898 for an audition.

HANDEL'S MESSIAH—The Duke Chapel Choir, soloists, and orchestra will perform Handel's Messiah on December 2 at 7:30 p.m., December 3 at 2:00 p.m., and December 4 at 3:00 p.m., in Duke Chapel. The choir and orchestra will be performing from the Chapel crossing, which improves the clarity of the sound for the listener. Tickets are $15 for adults, $5 for non-Duke students, and free for the first 300 Duke students. Tickets are available at the Duke Box Office by calling 684-4444 or at www.tickets.duke.edu

THIS WEEK AT DUKE CHAPEL

MORNING PRAYER - Monday at 9:00 a.m. in the Memorial Chapel

COMMUNION AND ANOINTING - No service this week

CHORAL VESPERS - No service this week

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

SHARE YOUR HOLIDAYS—This month, the Local Missions Team of the Congregation is participating in the Duke Center for Civic Engagement Share Your Holidays project. This program supplies donated new gifts to disadvantaged Durham citizens who might not otherwise have Christmas gifts. You are able to choose individuals to help from the Christmas Angel bulletin board as you leave the Chapel after worship. The Congregation will be collecting the gifts through Sunday, December 4.

CONGREGATION COOKBOOK—The Congregation's cookbook, Come to the Table, which was produced in celebration of the Congregation's 25th anniversary, will be available for $15 at the desk in the narthex following the service. Limited quantities are available for purchase through December 9. The book contains recipes, graces, photographs, and essays on food and theology. Contact Deborah Hackney at 919-724-6785 or deb.hackney@gmail.com if you have any questions.

HONDURAS GIFT MARKET—The youth of the Congregation will be raising money to benefit the Cocal Gracias Project, a ministry based in Puerto Cortes, Honduras. Congregation youth and parents will be traveling to Honduras in July 2012 to work with this ministry in mission. The youth group will sponsor a Honduras Gift Market, providing people the chance to support the ministry through donating to help build a home for a local pastor and his family. Look for the youth near the front steps of the Chapel following the Sunday services from November 27 through December 18.

BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE CONGREGATION—Are you looking for a way to connect with other worshippers at the Chapel? Are you looking for a group of people with whom to walk the Christian journey? Do you desire to be part of a Christian community that serves the Durham community and the world? If so, the Congregation is hosting a series of orientation sessions to meet on Sundays, December 4, 11, and 18 following morning worship in the Chapel kitchen. Membership in the Congregation is open to all. If you have questions or plan to attend, please contact the Rev. Bruce Puckett at bruce.puckett@duke.edu.

DINNER AT URBAN MINISTRIES—Each month the Congregation provides a meal for homeless guests at Urban Ministries of Durham. If you would like to donate lasagnas, serve one of the next meals, or acquire more information, please contact Ned Arnett at 489-4133 or email edward.arnett@duke.edu.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-681-9488

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

- † Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
- † For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
- † Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

- † Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
- † Activity Bags (for children 5 and under) and Liturgy Boxes (ages 5-8) are available at the rear of the Chapel to help children engage in worship. Please return after the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Bruce Puckett at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu
