Service of Worship

Fourth Sunday in Advent

December 19, 2010

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"The Dream of St. Joseph," by Georges de la Tour, 1640.

The season of Advent is a time of waiting on the promises of God. The God who has drawn near to Israel is about to draw nearer still in the form of a baby. The scripture lessons emphasize the promises that are to be fulfilled. Isaiah foretells the birth of a child to be called Immanuel, meaning "God with us." The introduction to Paul's letter to the Romans reveals how Jesus was the fulfillment of God's promise and opened the door of salvation to Gentiles as well as Jews. In Matthew, Joseph is visited in the night with the strange message of Jesus' coming birth, and he responds to God by asking Mary to become his wife.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Sumens illud Ave, peccatorum miserere.*

Loving Mother of the Redeemer, who remains the accessible gateway of heaven and star of the sea,
give aid to a falling people that strives to rise;
O thou who begot thy holy creator, while all nature marvelled, have mercy on sinners.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program that offers undergraduates and recent graduates varied opportunities to discern God's call for their lives. Our extended Lilly grant requires a 50% match from the Chapel.

NC BOYS CHOIR—The North Carolina Boys Choir and Chamber Choir will present an annual Christmas Concert in the Chapel tomorrow evening at 7:30 p.m. For ticket information, please call 919-489-0291 or visit www.ncboyschoir.org.

CHAPEL GOODBYE—At the end of December, we say goodbye to Mandie Sellars, who has been a vital member of the Chapel staff for 8 years. In January, she will assume the position of Director of Communications at Zoe Ministry in Garner, developing web and multimedia communications to connect African orphan groups with their sponsoring churches across the US. We are thankful to Mandie for her service to the Chapel in many roles, enhancing communications about our ministries and mission, maintaining our website, establishing relationships with the local media, and organizing events such as this year's Dean's Dialogues and art displays in the sanctuary.
