"The Crucifixion," by Alonso Cano, c. 1640

Good Friday is the day Christians recall the crucifixion and death of Jesus on the cross. Although Good Friday is one of the saddest days of the Christian year, many church traditions have continued to call it "good," believing that Christ's suffering and death were not in vain, but served to liberate humanity from sin and death. Scripture tells us that Christ died at the "sixth hour," or at noon. The Good Friday noon service is a simple, sparse service of scripture, preaching, and reflective music. In this service we remember with deep sorrow the suffering and death of an innocent man who is revealed to be the Son of God.

OPENING COLLECT

Almighty Father, look with mercy on this your family for which our Lord Jesus Christ was content to be betrayed and given up into hostile hands and to suffer death for our salvation; and shape our lives according to the pattern of your Son's cross, that as we share in your Son's crucifixion we may come to share also in the glory of his resurrection. Amen.
