Service of Tenebrae

Good Friday

April 2, 2010

Seven-thirty in the evening

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

“Jesus will be in agony until the end of the world . . .,” by Georges Rouault, c. 1920s.

Tenebrae (Latin for “shadows” or “darkness”) is a solemn observance of Jesus’ passion and death. Tenebrae services generally occur between Wednesday and Friday of Holy Week. They mark Jesus’ journey to Golgotha, and allow for extended meditation through proclamation of the Word in scripture and sermon, as well as in music, increasing darkness, and silent reflection. At Duke Chapel we gather on the evening of Good Friday to enter into the dramatic narrative of Jesus’ betrayal, arrest, and crucifixion, and to reflect on God’s wondrous love.

SILENCE

The end of the service is signified by the illumination of the draped cross. Please remain seated in silence until the side aisles are lighted to facilitate leaving. Silence is observed throughout the sanctuary from this time forward. Each person is encouraged to pray and meditate as long as he or she desires, then to depart in silence. If you would like to receive anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel after the worship service.

All who are able may stand.*
