

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

The Second Sunday after the Epiphany

January 20, 2008

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"Look! The Lamb of God" by Julius Schnorr von Carolsfeld, 1851-60

Each of today's scripture lessons reveal the ways that God invites humanity to participate in his work in the world. The prophet Isaiah says he was formed and called even before his birth with the purpose to gather the people of Israel back to God. In the letter to the church in Corinth, Paul argues that he and all people have been called to be saints who reveal God's love and truth to the world. They are being continually strengthened and conformed to bear witness to Christ. The gospel lesson describes John's assertion "Look! Here is the Lamb of God". Two of John's disciples heard the proclamation, and began to follow Jesus.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-684-2572

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

- † Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
- † For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.
- † Hearing assist units are available at the sound board and a Braille hymnal is available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

- † Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
- † Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children's bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at 684-3917. www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

OFFERTORY

Take My Hand, Precious Lord

arr. Ed Lojeski
Thomas A. Dorsey

Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand. I am tired, I am weak, I am worn. Thru the storm, thru the night, lead me on to the light. Take my hand, Precious Lord, lead me home. When my way grows drear, Precious Lord, linger near; when my life is almost gone, hear my cry, Lord hear my call, hold my hand, lest I fall. When the darkness appears and the night draws near, and the day is past and gone; at the river I stand, guide my feet, Lord, hold my hand, take my hand, Precious Lord, lead me home.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for the Terry Sanford Institute of Public Policy. We celebrate their dedication to creating public policy leaders for a changing world, and helping the University use knowledge in the service of society. Representatives bring an academic brochure and framed photo of the institute to the altar.

In Durham we pray for the people who bring food to us, especially for farmworkers, food service workers, and the people within local ministries who seek to be mindful of the principles of sustainable agriculture. A representative brings a basket of fresh North Carolina apples to the altar.

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER

We welcome the Rev. Dr. William Turner, Associate Professor of the Practice of Homiletics, as our guest preacher. Dr. Turner's ongoing work focuses on pneumatology and the tradition of spirituality and preaching within the black church. Articles on "Black Evangelicalism," "The Musicality of Black Preaching," and "The Black Church and the Ecumenical Tradition" reflect his teaching and writing interests. He taught in the areas of theology and Black Church Studies and directed the Office of Black Church Affairs prior to his appointment in homiletics. Professor Turner travels widely as a preacher and lecturer. He retains active involvement in church and community activities. Dr. Turner held positions within Duke University in student affairs and Afro-American Studies before joining the Divinity School faculty. Before that, he played football for Duke. He is the pastor of Mt. Level Baptist Church in Durham.

DUKE CHAPEL CHOIR: WITH CHEERFUL VOICE

The Chapel Choir has recently released With Cheerful Voice, a compilation of favorite hymns and hymn anthems featuring the Chapel Choir with Rodney Wynkoop conducting and David Arcus at the Aeolian Organ. Hymns include "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty," "Be Thou My Vision," "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," and many other favorites. The CD is available for purchase in the narthex after the service, as well as at Duke's Gothic Bookshop or by contacting Chapel Music at 684-3898.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FLOWERS—The flowers for today's worship service are provided by the Erlenbach Family Trust for the glory of God.

TODAY'S OFFERING—Today's offering will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program that offers undergraduates and recent graduates varied opportunities to discern God's call for their lives. Our extended Lilly grant requires a 50% match from the Chapel.

DEAN WELLS AND GODLY PLAY—Duke Chapel's Community Engagement series offers opportunities for those involved in the life of Duke Chapel to grow in faith together with downtown Durham neighborhoods and congregations. Dean Wells leads quarterly sessions in various downtown locations using the format of Godly Play. Godly Play offers a way of encountering the Biblical story that encourages discovery, wonder and attentive interaction among people of all ages and backgrounds. It is a transformative blend of worship and teaching that makes space for all who are prepared to open their imaginations to God. As Duke Chapel deepens its commitment to seek the welfare of the city of Durham, we hope these encounters will foster meaningful and transformational relationships in our community. Dean Wells will lead the next Godly Play event at Antioch Baptist Church on Wednesday, January 23, 2008. Please come for dinner at 6:30 p.m. and stay for Godly Play beginning at 7:15 p.m. The session will adjourn by 8:30 p.m.

SPRING BREAK AT THE CHRIST IN THE DESERT MONASTERY—Are you seeking to deepen your prayer life? The Duke Chapel PathWays program is sponsoring a retreat for undergraduates to the Christ in the Desert Monastery in the mountains of New Mexico from March 8-15. Students will spend five days immersed in the rhythms of prayer, rest, and work that shape the monastic life. The Rev. Abby Kocher will be leading this trip. Space constraints limit the team to only six students. The cost is $250 plus some meals. Find applications at www.chapel.duke.edu/pathways or by contacting abby.kocher@duke.edu. The application deadline is January 25, 2008.

OPEN POSITION—The Duke Chapel PathWays program is looking for a person who will coordinate and manage an intensive program for approximately thirty to forty Lilly Scholars. The employee will envision, plan, and implement Scholars' academic year curriculum, events, and community activities; assist the Program Director in coordinating the Summer Internship program. He or she will also mentor the Scholars to help them achieve spiritual and intellectual growth. A full job description is available at www.chapel.duke.edu/pathways. Express interest to Keith Daniel at 668-0476 before February 18.

NOTICE REGARDING PARKING FOR DUKE CHAPEL

Between January and late April there will be road and utility work along the Chapel end of Science Drive which will affect the accessibility of the Bryan Center parking garage. At times, all traffic will be routed through the bottom entrance of the parking deck, and at times that entrance will be closed and traffic will be routed through the deck entrance off the Bryan Center Lot. Signs and portable traffic signals will be placed to help facilitate traffic flow. You may want to allow some extra time to park on Sunday mornings in order to accommodate potential delays caused by construction.

THE CONGREGATION AT DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
919-684-3917 • www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

ADULT FORUM—On January 27, Dean Sam Wells will speak on his book God's Companions. The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building at 9:45 a.m.

INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT—An eight-week class from the Disciple Bible Study series called "Introduction to the New Testament" will be offered starting Thursday, January 17, at 7:00 p.m. Meetings will be held at the Forest at Duke, 2701 Pickett Road, Durham. The study moves through the gospel of Matthew sequentially, and overarching themes are then traced to other New Testament passages. The class includes daily reading assignments and a commitment to pray. To place your book order, please contact Mary Ann Manconi (office@congregation.chapel.duke.edu) by January 14. For further information, please contact Melissa Mills at melissa.mills@duke.edu.

YOUNG ADULT LUNCHEON—The Student Outreach Committee continues its series of monthly events with a luncheon on Sunday, January 27, following the worship service. Reservations are not required; just plan to attend with a good appetite and a desire to engage with other young adults in Christian fellowship.

"TRANSFORMING DISCIPLESHIP" CLASS—The Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark will lead a Lenten series called "The Way of Transforming Discipleship" starting Tuesday, February 5, at 7:00 p.m. This six-week series written by the Rev. Trevor Hudson asks the question: What does it mean to be an authentic Christ-follower? Through the study of Scripture passages, reflection exercises, and prayer, this study leads a small group to explore the meaning of authentic Christian spirituality. Location TBA. If you would like to enroll, please register by contacting Rev. Ferree-Clark at nancyfc@duke.edu or call 684-3917 by January 28.
